Former mayor quits council over Beehive

by Anders Larsson
anders@pemedia.co.uk

FORMER Honiton mayor Vernon Whitlock resigned from the town council on Saturday, citing concerns over the way The Beehive is being run.

The ex-police officer alleges that the town council makes decisions regarding the town's new community and arts centre without taking into account "sufficient, accurate and adequate input from the users, volunteers and those whom it appointed to run the facility".

In a resignation letter sent to the mayor Councillor Peter Halse and town clerk Chetna Jones, Mr Whitlock wrote: "I hereby tender my resignation from Honiton Town Council with immediate effect.

"I have been a town councillor for over 11 years and had the honour to serve the town as mayor on three occasions.

"This has been a difficult decision to make but I feel that I have been put into a position where I have no choice.

"Two years ago I was delighted to be appointed by the council as one of its representative directors on the company which it had set up to manage and run its community centre, The Beehive.

"Since that time I have worked tirelessly with my fellow directors and other volunteers to ensure that together with the town council we have developed a facility that exceeds all our expectations and is well valued by the community.

"However, my level of frustration has risen over this time as it has become clear that the company directors set up by the town council do not appear to have the confidence of councillors.

"As the chairman of the Beehive company I would have wished to be able to work closely with my fellow councillors to resolve this matter but have been hampered by the unwillingness of some councillors to listen to the factual research and evidence presented by the company.

"The result of this is the ridiculous situation where the town council is making decisions regarding The Beehive without taking account of sufficient, accurate and adequate input from the users, volunteers and those whom it appointed to run the facility.

"This has placed me in the untenable position where I have been given a responsibility but not a voice.

"I feel that not being a town councillor will allow me an independent voice in council meetings along with other members of the public and will allow the council to be updated accurately and effectively.

"Honiton Town Council has shown vision and commitment in building The Beehive.

"It has provided its community with fantastic facilities which are the envy of East Devon and a legacy for our children and our children's children. It should be celebrated.

"In leaving the council I know I will regain a voice and be fully able to represent the interests of the community (including the many users and volunteers of the Beehive) whom I remain committed to serve."

When asked for comment, Honiton mayor Peter Halse said: "I'm sorry he has found this necessary, he has served the town so well.

"I'm sorry he felt he had to leave under such circumstances."

Honiton Town Council has informed East Devon District Council about the resignation.

If a set number of electors ask for a by-election, one will be held. If not, the vacancy will be filled through co-option.

Quotes of the week...

"I DECIDED to dig the earth at that spot and immediately reached some iron ingots which were laid directly on top of the coins.

"The next shovel was full of coins – they just spilled out over the field.

"I had no idea how far down the coins went so I stopped immediately and phoned my wife to help me raise the appropriate authorities and then to come and meet me at the site with a camera.

"Between finding the hoard and the archaeologists excavating the site, I slept in my car alongside it for three nights to guard it!"

New boss for Axminster Res

KEITH Taylor has been appointed as the new manager of Devon & Exeter League Division Three side Axminster Town Reserves.

Taylor (47), who will be assisted by club chairman Ray Self, has a long association with the Tigers having played youth football from age 11 through to 16 before turning out for the Reserve team and having the occasional first team outing.

He then went on to play for Chard United and Millwey Rise before managing Millwey Reserves to their first silverware when they lifted the Ken Hodges cup back in 2003–04.

New players welcome

Taylor, who has since had a spell as a qualified referee in the Perry Street League and returned as assistant manger at Millwey Rise, is keen to add to the current Axminster Town Reserve team squad and would welcome any new faces at training which currently takes place at Axe Valley School on Tuesday evenings from 6:30pm.

The team have had a difficult start to the new season and currently sit bottom of the table without a point to their name.

AXMINSTER

County lifeline for town librarians

AXMINSTER Library could retain professional librarians under a new concept that would see Devon County Council's (DCC) library service become a mutual society or trust, saving about £400,000 in business rates.

The idea is expected to be outlined in DCC Cabinet agenda papers to be released today (Tuesday).

Earlier this year, DCC proposed to make a string of libraries, including Axminster, second-tier, volunteer-led facilities without professional librarians as part of a £1.5 million cost-cutting exercise.

Local residents set up a campaign group - Support for Axminster Library - to fight the proposal and the subsequent DCC consultation exercise attracted about 6,000 responses countywide, 633 of them concerning Axminster Library.

As a result, DCC bosses had a rethink and issued a statement on September 25th, saying: "Exciting plans for Devon's libraries have been revealed after an unprecedented public consultation.

"Local people have told DCC they are prepared to offer more community support to maintain and improve their library. But they say they want to maintain professional expertise and support in their library in return.

"DCC is now set to ask for 10 communities to come forward and act as pathfinders to establish new ways of working with Devon Library Service.

"And next month the council's Cabinet will consider plans for a new operating model for the entire library service..."

Devolution for the West Country?

WITH the result of the Scottish referendum, the future of the United Kingdom seems assured - at least for now - but it also raises the question of home rule for England.

If there's a Scottish Parliament, Welsh Assembly and Stormont in Northern Ireland, why should England be left out?

You could argue there's no need for a seperate building or, indeed, a seperate elected body - simply only allow English MPs to vote on "England only" matters in Westminster, thereby settling the age old West Lothian Question in the process.

But with England being by far the largest partner in the Union - both geographically and in terms of population - perhaps regional representation is the way forward for England?

What would that mean for us here in the West Country? Well, for starters, our friends in Cornwall - who, just earlier this year, were granted minority status by the Council of Europe - would look for a greater level of autonomy.

But more interestingly for us here in Devon would be the potential for a Wessex assembly.

Ever since Scotland was promised additional powers towards the conclusion of the referendum campaign - which may well have been what finally swayed the electorate towards the "no vote" - the voices of Wessex Regionalists have become louder.

If Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland can have their own seperate representation, why not the people of the ancient Kingdom of Wessex?

A West Country assembly working for the benefit of, say, Devon, Dorset, Somerset, Wiltshire and Hampshire - surely that doesn't sound a bad idea?

Yes, it could be a massive waste of money; but if devolution is the only way we can secure the future of our nations' partnership together within the United Kingdom, it could be a radical force for good.

If the West Country could be seen as a region in the same way as Wales is as a nation, working together there could be more potential for investment and opportunites for the young.

And, to me at least, it sounds far more appealing than the UK breaking up; which only a few weeks ago was a very real possibility. What do you think?

OTTERY ST MARY

'The gloves are off' in election battle

EAST Devon MP Hugo Swire has claimed a drain maintenance victory in Ottery over a future challenger to his seat in parliament.

His statement and subsequent swipe at current county councillor Claire Wright serve as a sure sign that the 2015 general election race for the East Devon seat has started.

On September 23rd Mr Swire issued a press bulletin, headlined: "East Devon MP Hugo Swire takes action on local flooding".

The MP said he had received assurances from Devon County Council that a number of drains in Ottery St Mary would be unblocked pronto.

Mr Swire explained that he got involved after a meeting with Ottery St Mary Mayor Glyn Dobson to survey a number of blocked drains in the town, including drains in Silver Street.

Mr Swire said: "Although I am happy to help with this problem, I would have thought that Ottery St Mary's county councillor would have sorted this by now.

"Unfortunately, I felt compelled to intervene as no such progress has been made.

"The blocked drains that Councillor Dobson showed me are so obviously causing a number of problems for local residents.

"I have therefore spoken to representatives from Devon County Council who have assured me that the appropriate action will be taken within the week."

The county councillor for Ottery St Mary is Claire Wright (Ind), who earlier this year declared that she will contest the East Devon seat at next year's general election.

Councillor Wright didn't say if she had worked on the drain issue or not, but told Pulman's View From that it looks as if "the gloves are off".

She added: "Thank you very much to Mr Swire for his efforts.

"Can Ottery residents now expect Mr Swire to become active on all other issues like the library, the youth centre, the over-development of Ottery and surrounding villages and the loss of hospital beds and the minor injuries unit?

"So far he has been pretty quiet."

A Devon County Council spokesperson confirmed that 12 gullies/drains in Ottery St Mary town centre (between the newsagents/ Christopher Piper Wines in Silver Street down to the road junction which adjoins Broad Street) had been cleared.

SEATON

Record find of Roman coins

A HOARD of 22,000 Roman coins has been unearthed on land near Seaton.

The 'Seaton Down Hoard' of copper-alloy Roman coins is one of the largest and best preserved 4th Century collections to have ever been found in Britain.

The hoard was declared treasure at a Devon Coroner's Inquest on September 12th which means it will be eligible for acquisition by a museum after valuation by the Treasure Valuation Committee, a group of independent experts who advise the Secretary of State.

The Royal Albert Memorial Museum in Exeter, which already houses a large collection of local Romano-British objects, has launched a fundraising campaign.

The discovery was made in November 2013 by East Devon builder and metal detector enthusiast Laurence Egerton, who was operating under licence on private land near the previously excavated site of a Roman villa at Honeyditches in East Devon.

Mr Egerton, 51, immediately reported the find in accordance with the Treasure Act 1996 to the landowner Clinton Devon Estates, Devon County Council's County Archaeologist and the British Museum's Portable Antiquities Scheme (PAS) who informed the coroner.

The hoard was then carefully removed in its entirety by a team of archaeologists and over the past 10 months. The coins date back to between 260 and 348 AD.

Anger over planning bid

by Jack Dixon

OTTERY councillors have criticised an "outrageous" bid by a former councillor to lift a planning restriction on his property at Ware Farm.

Graham Brown, a former East Devon District Council (EDDC) representative for the Feniton and Buckerell ward, left his post last year after boasts about his ability to secure planning approval for developers were revealed by a national newspaper.

And in a further controversial episode, Mr Brown is now applying for a "certificate of lawfulness" in order to change a condition of his original planning agreement with EDDC for his Ottery property.

In 2000, Mr Brown was granted permission to build a house for himself at Ware Farm under the proviso that the land continue to be used "solely or mainly" for agricultural purposes.

But Mr Brown is now claiming that his farm business "quickly and drastically diminished" between 2002 and 2003, and that the land has not been used for this purpose for a period of more than 10 years. For this reason, he argues the condition should legally be removed.

The value of the property is likely to rise by hundreds of thousands of pounds if the restriction is lifted, but Ottery councillors have expressed concerns about Mr Brown's actions.

Discussing the application at a recent meeting, members of the town council's planning committee highlighted a series of inconsistencies in the evidence supporting Mr Brown's application.

Councillor Jessica Bailey said she was concerned about the "contradictory evidence" and offered to compile a report to be sent to EDDC.

Councillor Roger Giles described Mr Brown's application as "totally outrageous". He added: "People should comply with planning conditions. The normal arrangement is that they suffer some sort of penalty [if they don't]. But in this case the applicant stands to benefit substantially.

"The planning system seems to be wholly wrong and we should write to EDDC expressing our concerns about the claims that have been made."

Mr Brown claims that no farming income is now generated on the property and his whole working week is applied to non-agricultural business activities.

In the application, he provides detailed statistical evidence showing a gradual decline in the amount of agricultural work carried out on the site over the last decade.

And if he can prove the land has not been used for agricultural purposes – to the previously agreed amount – for longer than 10 years, Mr Brown could be allowed to use the breach in support of an application to continue, legally, breaking the rule.

Tony Green, a representative from campaign group the East Devon Alliance (EDA), also attended the meeting to speak out against the application.

He claimed the farm business had not been "in decline" because Mr Brown had received large sums in farm subsidies between 2000 and 2009, and the application was "seriously misleading" as a result.

EDA Chair Paul Arnott added: "If Mr Brown's application is successful, the protection of the AONB from speculative development will be further eroded."

Ottery councillors agreed to write to EDDC spelling out their concerns about the evidence in Mr Brown's application.

New mats

HONITON Bowling Club has got a new set of bowling mats thanks to sponsor Manders Financial Services.

The mats are an essential tool for the game and used by each of players to stand on when they bowl.

Company director Jenny Manders said: "The mats take a lot of wear and tear and as their main sponsor this year we wanted to give them something that was of a high quality, practical and that would demonstrate our support."

Club representative Tony Tooley said: "I presented the mats at our recent meeting and they were extremely well received.

"We are very grateful to Manders Financial Services for their support and continued interest."

Fuse box callout

FIRE crews were called to a commercial property in High Street last week, after a fuse box caught fire.

A team from the Honiton station arrived at the scene in the early hours of Tuesday morning (September 16th) to find an alarm sounding in the property.

A second appliance was called from Middlemoor station, after firefighters confirmed a smell of burning coming from the building.

Crews eventually gained access to a store cupboard, which was filled with smoke, and were able to extinguish the fire using breathing apparatus and a dry powder appliance.

No one is believed to have been injured in the incident and the building was fully ventilated before crews left the scene.

Age UK chief exec to speak to Senior Voice

Age UK Devon chief executive Sophie Littlewood will today (Tuesday, September 30th) address Honiton Senior Voice (HSV).

She has been invited to an open meeting as part of HSV's celebration of Older People's Day.

The meeting will take place at Honiton Methodist Hall from 2pm.

Older People's Day celebrates the acheivements and contributions of older people to society.

Age UK is a large charity working with older people in the UK and promotes quality of life and opportunities.

HSV chairman Vic Bowsher said: "We are very pleased to welcome Sophie to Honiton to mark the contribution of older people to our community. This is also a time when many older people are facing challenges including increased costs of living and care costs and the loss of local day centres and other services.

"We are also concerned with the loss of beds to our community hospitals in East Devon which provide a valuable service and support to older people.

"Age UK had a history of providing services in Honiton at the former Red Cross building in Queen Street. We look forward to working together in the future."

Doors open at 1:30pm for refreshments. All are welcome.

■ ST Andrew's Primary School in Chardstock celebrated 175 years by providing Victorian desks for pupils during an open day. Pupils and staff played their part by attending school in Victorian–inspired clothing on Friday, September 19th. Revamp at Musbury Moles

MUSBURY Moles Pre-School has undergone a revamp over the summer holiday.

The pre-school received a grant for £500 which helped to set up a new sensory room and mobile resources which will benefit people from the local community, childminders and other local pre-schools.

An open morning is planned to show childcare providers what is on offer and how they can benefit from the resources.

Musbury Moles prides itself on its great outdoor space and offering an enriching outdoor environment. The pre-school now has a specially designed Mole Hole Exploration area which is home to a new tepee where children can read stories and enjoy circle time. The biggest and most popular addition to the facilities is a new pirate ship climbing frame, the centre piece in the orchard.

The pre-school has also welcomed new staff James and Beth this term and has extended its opening times to offer a breakfast club, which is run by a Kellogg's trained member of staff.

The children are now looking forward to starting work on their allotment again and have lots more new ventures in the pipeline.

Those interested in joining the Moles on a bear hunt, track treasure or to make mud cakes in their mud pie kitchen, email musbury_moles@yahoo.co.uk or visit the website www.musburymolespreschool.weebly.com

Book to help with life stresses

A CHARD–based author will speak at an event on how to cope with the stresses and strains of daily life.

The event has been organised by Kilmington Baptist Church and will be held at the Pavilions on Wednesday, October 1st at 7.30pm. Lucy Mills has published "Forgetful heart: remembering God in a distracted world this year" with publisher Darton, Longman & Todd. The book is aimed at those who, in the distractions of a busy work or family life, find it hard to find time to reflect and find their spiritual centre.

The evening is free of charge and refreshments will be provided.

New project on the Dunning family and Elmfield House

STAFF at Thelma Hulbert Gallery (THG) in Honiton have issued an appeal for historical information about the Dunning family and its spell at Elmfield House.

The gallery is located in Elmfield House and recently gained a £18,400 Heritage Lottery Fund grant.

The history of the house is part of the project the grant will fund, and co-ordinator Anna Aroussir has already unearthed some interesting facts – but needs local help to discover more.

She said: "We believe the Dunning family lived here for some generations until artist Thelma Hulbert purchased it from them as her home and studio.

"We are asking for memories and stories about anyone who lived and worked here.

"Please email any information to info@thelmahulbert.com or write to: THG, Elmfield House, Dowell St, Honiton EX14 1LX, if you can provide answers to any of these questions:

"Who lived and worked at Elmfield House?, Did you know the Dunning family? Did you (or anyone you know) have one of the allotments?

"Did you know Thelma Hulbert? Did you get married here? Is there anything else we should know about the gallery ?"

LOOKING FOR ANSWERS: Anna Aroussir

Jane Eyre auditions

HONITON Players will hold open auditions for their production of Jane Eyre in the Narthex, St Paul's Church, on Monday, October 20th at 7:30pm and Friday, October 24th at 8pm.

All are welcome to attend.

The performances of Jane Eyre will take place at Honiton Community College on April 23rd, 24th and 25th next year.

Study reveals secret history of war objectors

by Jack Dixon

A LOCAL history study has uncovered some of the hidden stories of the Honiton men who said 'no' to war a century ago.

As communities around the country gather to commemorate those who served and never returned, local history enthusiast Tony Simpson has revealed the true stories of the Honiton men who rejected service.

Many faced the arm of the law or judgment by their peers for appealing against conscription during the First World War, for reasons of conscience or religion.

Mr Simpson said: "Much of the commemoration is rightly about those who did not return. But what of the locals who just said 'no, I'm not going'.

"Despite huge pressure to sign up, over 2.6 million people were conscripted, more than actually volunteered."

A dedicated trawler of the history books, Mr Simpson's latest journey into the archives uncovers a raft of accounts of Honiton men who were taken to military service tribunals after they appealed against conscription.

In Honiton, most appeals for exemption were from working people who were desperately needed locally.

Mr Simpson added: "Each time it met, the Honiton Rural Tribunal heard dozens of appeals. In March 1917, 10 cases were rejected at one hearing."

One of Honiton's oldest conscientious objectors, 104-year-old Arthur Harris, is still alive today.

Mr Harris, a resident of the Abbeyfield care home in High Street, said his childhood memories of the First World War were so vivid that he became an objector in later life.

In his book, 'Arthur's Tale', he says the injustice toward injured and gassed men returning from war left a lasting impression.

Mr Harris, who later joined the Peace Pledge Union, said: "I remember saying to myself – I will never take part in a war. It is nothing but legalised murder."

Mr Simpson added: "It was conscription during the First World War which produced a reaction to being forced to kill and be killed.

"Many pacifists were forced to serve, but 16,000 refused and many were severely punished.

"By the time of the Second World War, the figure had risen to 60,000, including men like Arthur, who on religious grounds simply could not kill their fellow men."

Freedom Cafe reopens

by Philip Evans

A CAFÉ that provides free food is a rare occurrence – but that's exactly what happens in Seaton on a regular basis.

On the third Saturday morning of each month St Gregory's Church Hall opens its doors to all-comers who are served with free nourishing food to bring people together.

The café has been closed since April for the refurbishment of the church hall which has cost in the region of £150,000, paid for through grant aid donations and fundraising. Now known as the church centre, the building boasts a new kitchen and roof.

The café is celebrating its fifth anniversary and was re-opened by the Mayor of Seaton, Councillor Gaynor Sedgwick, who marked the occasion by cutting a ribbon across the new kitchen counter.

After being introduced by town crier David Craner, who made a special cry, Councillor Sedgwick congratulated the organisers on their "great achievement" and commented on what a "marvellous community service" they were providing.

The vicar, the Reverend Jeremy Trew, after welcoming the gathering of churchgoers, helpers and guests, said the old church hall had served them well over the years but the new centre would better serve their needs.

A bouquet was presented to Councillor Sedgwick by café organiser Mary Casey who reported that after the opening 474 orders for food were prepared, the most they had ever served, the average being around 370.

Mrs Casey said the Freedom Café would open 11 times during the year, on the third Saturday of every month with the exception of August.

"We are very mindful of cafes in the town and the living they have to make throughout the year," she said.

"As a charity it has never been our intention to take something away from our community but to give something back, to bring people together in a place that is equal for all.

"It doesn't matter who you are, or what you have, you are welcome at the Freedom Café."

The Freedom Café has around 60 volunteers made of volunteers with around half coming from the Seaton church community.

No charge is made for the food but there is a rummage table at each gathering.

Over the five years the project has been running the café has been able to make donations totalling around £2,500 to worthy causes.

The next Freedom Café is on Saturday, October 18th.

Beer fashion night is complete sell out

by Kevin Fahey

TONIGHT'S (September 30th) inaugural charity fashion event in Beer is a sell out with all 100 tickets snapped up.

The night has been organised by the Beer Group of Friends to raise money for Seaton Nurses at Home (Seaton & District League of Friends) and Cancer Research UK.

"We have sold just over 100 tickets and now we are hoping that now everyone will turn up on the night and spend a lot of money!" said event spokeswoman Angie Cromwell.

The organising committee could have sold even more tickets but the space at the Beer Sailing Club is limited.

"I just don't think we could have squeezed in any more people!" added Angie.

The appeal to readers of the Pulman's View series of newspapers for branded clothing items was a huge success and the sale will include numerous designer pieces from well-known shops.

"We have had a tremendous response to our appeal and have been donated some really nice items donated for the sale," said Angie.

"We would like to thank everyone who has helped put on the event, which has taken a lot of work and hopefully we will now raise a lot of money for the two charities and everyone will have a great night."

Concert fundraiser

■ THE Seaton and Axminster Branch of the Cancer Research Supporters Group raised £1,000 for the charity at the concert they organised which took place at The Gateway in August. The event was organised in memory of June Frost's late father.

Jurassic centre project breaks ground

by Anders Larsson

CONSTRUCTION of the Seaton Jurassic visitor centre is officially underway.

A ground-breaking ceremony on Friday, September 26th signalled the start of the actual building of the £4m visitor centre at The Underfleet.

Donald Campbell of Seaton Visitor Centre Trust was assisted by local primary school pupils Taylor Lee and Aimee Kenworthy in marking the occasion, observed by contractors, project officials and invited guests.

Seaton Jurassic will take the visitor on "a unique journey back in time to experience the story of evolution, wildlife and geology".

It will also raise awareness of Seaton's unique location on the Jurassic Coast; the only place with examples of Jurassic, Triassic and Cretaceous eras, according to East Devon District Council.

It is expected that the first part of the new centre including a shop, a cafe and the tourist information centre will open in July 2015, with the full centre opening later in the year.

The Jurassic Coast World Heritage team, along with Seaton Visitor Centre Trust and the community of Seaton, has been working for a number of years to develop a visitor centre for Seaton.

The project has secured more than £4million of funding with contributions from East Devon District Council, Devon County Council, Seaton Town Council, Heritage Lottery Fund, Coastal Communities Fund, Garfield Weston Foundation and Fine Family Foundation.

Councillor Ian Thomas, cabinet member for economy at EDDC, said: "This is a historic day for the town and for all those who have been involved for so long in campaigning for a centre as well as the many organisations and individuals who have worked tirelessly to make it happen.

"It is important that we mark this occasion and look forward to next year when the centre will open bringing a huge economic boost to the town and region.

"We continue to work hard to ensure that Seaton Jurassic is a success and the catalyst to further regeneration in the town."

Devon Wildlife Trust will manage the centre, and chief executive Harry Barton said: "Today is the climax of more than a decade of hard work by many people.

"It is also the start of a challenging but very exciting 15 months, at the end of which we will have a fully operating visitor centre.

"Our aim is to open the welcome area, cafe and shop by next summer and the completed exhibition halls by Christmas."

Donald Campbell, one of the founding members of Seaton Visitor Centre Trust, was equally enthusiastic and said: "This is so exciting after all these years of campaigning for a centre to see it become a reality is a dream.

"I am honoured to be asked to break the ground for the building work to actually start and delighted to share the privilege with one of our younger generation who will benefit and learn from the centre for many years to come."

Mayor of Seaton, Councillor Gaynor Sedgwick, added: "I am delighted and excited that after so many years of planning, fundraising, determination and sheer hard work by so many people this special day has arrived when we can celebrate the start of the build.

"I have no doubt at all that Seaton Jurassic will have a positive and lasting economic impact on the town offering visitors and residents a first class attraction of which Seaton can be proud."

Devon County Council Councillor Roger Croad, cabinet member for community and environmental services, commented: "This will be a great asset for Seaton and all of the communities along the Jurassic Coast. I'm sure everyone will be looking forward to the opening of the centre next year."

● THE existing entrance to the The Underfleet car park will be closing on October 29th, at which point access to the remaining car park with around 150 spaces will be from the Marsh Street end of The Underfleet.

An overspill car park for a further 70 spaces will be created on the opposite side of The Underfleet, subject to planning approval later this year.

■ THE development of the project can be followed online at www.seatonjurassic.org, @seatonjurassic on Twitter or liking 'seaton jurassic' on Facebook.

Biggest ever crowd enjoy medieval Goose Fayre

By Francesca Evans
francesca@pemedia.co.uk

HUNDREDS of residents and visitors to Colyford were taken back in time at the village's annual Goose Fayre.

The traditional event was held on Saturday afternoon, beginning with a procession through the village led by Colyton town crier Derek Wenn, the Exeter Morris Men and Mayor of Colyford, Councillor Howard West, and his wife Anne, followed by many villagers in medieval dress.

The procession was led to Springfield, thanks to the kind permission of Mr and Mrs Poutney, where it was officially opened by Councillor West after tasting the fayre ale.

The medieval theme continued throughout the afternoon with entertainment including the Colyford Mummers Play, medieval dancing, roaming minstrels, falconry, archery, re-enactments with Sutton House Living History and a mock auction of geese. Children enjoyed riding the quintain and battling each other on the greasy pole, while music was provided by the Early Music Group from the Woodroffe School in Lyme Regis.

Colyford Butchers kept visitors well-fed with their popular ram roast while a number of stalls provided further refreshments.

Speaking on the success of the event, Councillor West said: "We think it was the largest ever attendance at the Goose Fayre, probably due to the fine weather. Everbody enjoyed themselves and we had a very successful day."

It is not yet known how much the fayre raised but all profits will go back to village organisations and groups which helped in the organisation of the event.

Colyford Goose Fayre is held to commemorate the formation of the Ancient Borough of Colyford and to celebrate Michaelmas, when in 1207 King John granted Thomas Bassett, founder of the ancient borough, a seven-day fair in Colyford.

A special church service was also held at St Michael's Chapel of Ease in Colyford on Sunday, with the congregation again wearing their medieval costumes to finish the weekend of celebrations.

Thanks go to Mr and Mrs Poutney for use of Springfield and Mr and Mrs Organ for use of their paddock for parking.

■ KNIGHT AND HIS STEED: Children enjoyed riding the quintain

Award-winning flower arranger visits Colyford

THE September meeting of Colyford & District Flower Club, attended by 49 members and two visitors, featured a wonderful afternoon of flower arranging by Sue Griffiths (nee Kehoe).

Sue has been chosen as the UK's representative to exhibition, with other from 30 diffierent countries, at the National Association of Flower Arrangement Societies Dublin exhibition, and now has a World Association of Flower Arrangers gold medal.

Her theme for the afternoon was "Roses Grown on You" and her first two arrangements were contemporary ones, illustrating roses and chocolate – an irresistible combination.

Her third arrangement, a more traditional one, showed off some beautiful orange roses to perfection and proved to be very popular with her audience.

Sue once again demonstrated her skills with an asymmetrical arrangement which echoed the colours of an Alphonse Mucha painting , using larch and wine-coloured gladioli and carnations, amongst others.

A modern arrangement using glass flutes followed and then two arrangements on an autumn theme, incorporating ideas gleaned from the borders of a stately home, and using agapanthus, gentian, gladioli and a sunflower called "Teddy".

In the competition, entitled "Entwined", first place in the intermediate class went to Lindy Richards, and Joan Machnik came first in the advanced class.

Trophies presented to start art club's new season

WORKING in acrylics, Michael Chappell, teacher-artist from Mangerton Mill, near Bridport, demonstrated the many ways to create the illusion of depth in a landscape at the first meeting of the season for Seaton & District Art Society.

It was the first meeting since the club's annual exhibition at Seaton Town Hall in August, and the exhibition winners were announced by chairman Maureen Turner - The President's Cup for the best picture in show went to Michele M. Waters; the Maggie Lodge Rose Bowl for flower painting to Adrian Ballantyne; the Devon Framers Cup for landscape to Kaili Fu; the Barbara Hollingsworth Award for portrait to Maureen Sherman; the Bob Hurndell memorial cup for wildlife to Gilly Warner Mills; and the Mitre Box Cup, voted by visitors as their favourite to Rita Sugden.

Using sketches made en plein air, guest speaker Michael used Galleria Acrylic paper re-primed with acrylic primer to give it a little more tooth. He emphasised the need to use artist's quality paints but said you can mix acrylics from different manufacturers.

Encouraging members to be bold, he said "first select a brush - then pick up another one two sizes bigger". Establishing a blue-grey sky with ultramarine and burnt umber, he created the plein air wind with a hairdryer and, when the paper was bone dry, he established "the most important line, the horizon" with ordinary masking tape. He later used the hairdryer again to loosen the tape and showed how it can be carefully replaced.

Michael mostly used neat acrylic paint and showed how he used his thumb and a toothbrush to create different effects.

The next demonstration takes place in Seaton Town Hall on Monday, October 6th, 2pm to 4pm, when Anne Harris works in "Oils, Versatile and Enjoyable." New members and visitors are always welcome.

The work and history of Trinity House

AXMINSTER History Association starts its winter programme of evening talks this Wednesday, October 1st.

The group holds regular informal and friendly meetings with a guest speaker on the first Wednesday of each month. This year's programme includes both local and general historical interest items.

The first illustrated talk is "The Work and History of Trinity House" and is told by retired lighthouse engineer Alan Nicholas. He will cover the 500 years since Henry VIII granted The Corporation of Trinity House its first Royal Charter in 1514 "so that they might regulate the pilotage of ships in the King's streams".

Today, Trinity House deploy over 600 aids to navigation from lighthouses to satellite navigation and are responsible for the inspection and audit of over 10,000 of these aids in our ports and harbours.

All are welcome to join at 7.30pm at the United Reform Church Hall, Chard Street, Axminster.

Staff from Cerdic Foundries talk at rail club

THE Thorncombe Rail Activities Club talk in September was a little out of the ordinary as it concerned the casting of major components for steam locomotives.

Humphrey Davies was managing director of Cerdic Foundries in Chard for many years and brought along two of his colleagues to present a talk on the work of the foundry, in particular with reference to railway customers. The foundry has made a number of key components for the restoration and repair of steam locomotives and continues to do so.

A recent major job was casting new cylinders for a Great Western King Class locomotive. These massive and complex units were needed to allow the locomotive to operate on the main lines. As originally designed, the King would rip off all the platform edging of today's platforms, as they are built to suit the slightly slimmer modern carriage and loco stock.

The change has been achieved by designing a new cylinder block with slimmer pistons and by reducing the webs on the outside of the cylinder. Members saw photos of each stage of the design and preparation of the moulds for casting, and the finished product as it appeared from the mould. Work for more up-to-date trains was the casting of brake discs for the HS125 trains, which occupied the works for a long time.

The next club meeting is on Wednesday, October 15th with a talk by Trevor Whitfield, entitled "The Changing Face of British Railways". The meeting is in Thorncombe Village Hall and starts at 7.30pm. Non-members are welcome, there are refreshments, and parking is free.

Perfect conditions for yacht club's biggest ever races

Words and photos by Brian Lavender

IDEAL conditions with warm sunshine, offshore winds, a calm sea and favourable tides allowed the Axe Yacht Club to make a very impressive contribution to the largest global sailing event ever, on Sunday, September 21st.

Twenty-nine sailing dinghies and 43 cruisers took part in three separate races in Seaton Bay, the dinghies in the morning involving many of the 19 cadets sailing on their own, and the cruisers in the afternoon with lots of guest crews to get as many people racing at sea, some for the first time in their lives.

The event, part of the national Bart's Bash, was held in memory of Andrew "Bart" Simpson, who tragically drowned last year while training for the Americas Cup, with races taking place all across the country to raise funds for the Andrew Simpson Sailing Foundation.

One hundred bacon butties provided fuel for the early starters as an enormous effort from club members was required to get the 29 dinghies rigged, down to the beach and safely launched and recovered, with safety boats to keep close watch on all the sailors.

The club also provided a barbecue lunch outside the clubhouse, where 200 members were assembled.

The biggest cruiser race the club had ever seen was held after lunch – a professional, hard-fought and enjoyable race.

Club Commodore Gordon Wright congratulated everybody who took part in, and supported the event, particularly the prime organisers, Michael Crees, Ian and Amanda Parker, commenting that it had been one of the most memorable days in the life of the Axe Yacht Club. At the time of writing, £1,700 had been raised by the club for the Andrew Simpson Foundation, which provides sailing opportunities for youngsters to boost their confidence and life skills.

Jurassic centre will be 'white elephant in town's history'

■ AS a trader in Seaton I would like to officially issue a challenge to East Devon District Council cabinet member Ian Thomas to come to the town to meet local business people and discuss the statements he has been making and the discovery centre proposals.

Perhaps he will be able to convince us that this project, which I believe will be the biggest white elephant in the town's history, will actually do some good and not further harm already hard pressed traders.

It is interesting to note that the first part of the scheme being pushed ahead with is for the section which will actually hit local traders hardest - a shop and cafe. Does Mr Thomas and his colleagues care? Clearly not. They can't even agree on the number of visitors this centre is supposed to bring to the town.

Only recently the district council has decided there will be a need for overspill parking - something we have been saying for years. What took them so long?

Then to add insult to injury we now have the ridiculous waves they want to stick here, there and everywhere. This proposal has caused great opposition already.

Whoever writes East Devon's press releases clearly believes what they are saying and Mr Thomas has become the mouthpiece. We, the town's traders, want the opportunity to question what is being claimed. If Mr Thomas has the answers and they stand up to scrutiny then he has nothing to fear from coming to meet us. If he hasn't then it could be an interesting meeting.

So come on Mr Thomas agree to come and put your case to the people who are actually working hard to keep a town centre in Seaton. I'll book a venue and see to the publicity. Just give me some dates.

TONY WOODMAN,
Woodys, Seaton

■ EDITOR'S NOTE: The plans for the two sculptured waves at Fisherman's Gap have now been withdrawn, but the district plans to resubmit a second application for them.

Send your letters to Pulman's View From newspapers, Unit 3 St Michael's Business Centre, Church Street, Lyme Regis, Dorset DT7 3DB

Please note, anonymous letters will not be published except in special circumstancesbut full addresses can be withheld at the writer's request. The views expressed in letters are those of the authors and not necessarily of this newspaper.

Tourists don't need 'interpretive pillars'

■ AS a regular visitor to Seaton I would like to comment on, and protest at, the distasteful erections planned for some Seaton's attractive and functional features.

These are referred to in classic management speak by Councillor Ian Thomas as "hotspots" (Pulman's View from Seaton & Beer, September 17th). Presumably, this term refers to an attractive area in Seaton worth paying attention to, and which I believe will be rendered less attractive by the siting of a structure referred to as "the same core interpretation pillar", which means some kind of sign or unnatural feature erected to leave one in no doubt that one has arrived!

It is difficult to see how the large metal waves planned for erection at Fisherman's Gap can look other than garish and kitsch, in comparison with the beauty of the natural waves, and the constant rhythms of the ocean. It is akin to painting spring daffodils gold in order to draw attention to their beauty.

The harbour too, is threatened by decking and pillars! This is a natural working harbour and looks as tourists always imagine such harbours should look, but seldom do. Tourists will find they are not disappointed in Seaton; here the harbour excels the image in the tourists mind. So, why is decking necessary?

There is so much to see at this harbour to excite and engage the visitor's imagination; they do not need to sit on decking staring at "interpretive pillars"! Just what are these pillars interpreting by the way? Another case of gold painted daffodils!

I support the stand of Councillors Christmas and Woodman on the irrelevance of these structures, and urge the rest of Seaton councillors to think again and withdraw their support for these redundant interpretive pillars and consider the natural environment, as surely such installations can only be viewed as a serious act of visual environmental pollution. Surely the £4million funding can be put to better than the creation of these tasteless baubles.

A.R.T. EMERY,
Hilperton, Trowbridge

■ EDITOR'S NOTE: The plans for the two sculptured waves at Fisherman's Gap have now been withdrawn, but the district plans to resubmit a second application for them.

Thanks district for imaginative flowers

■ FOLLOWING recent negative letters about Seaton, I would like to be positive for a change and say how much I appreciate and am enjoying the more natural wild flower planting in Seaton this year.

There is a bed on the seafront and several around the bowling green and tennis courts. They are a joy and so refreshing.

Thank you East Devon District Council for being more experimental and lets hope you repeat it next year.

HILARY ARNOLD,
Beer Road, Seaton

Always smiling faces for those feeling lonely

■ SILVER Sunday on October 5th is set to make people aware of loneliness in older people (and others).

I should like to commend the group of volunteers at Age UK, Seaton.

Anyone who turns up at No 1, Harepath Road, on Wednesday mornings or Thursday afternoons is sure of a welcome with tea and biscuits and chatter.

There are always smiling faces and plenty of information to be had. If you are lonely why not give them a try? you might end up being a volunteer too.

Pulman's from View newspapers in East Devon

Pulman's View from the churches

With NIGEL SPELLER

WE recall today the installation of the second Bishop of Thika (linked with Exeter Diocese) in September who has kept colleagues and clergy on their toes.

Five linked parishes now have new vicars which is good news. Clergy movements can be traced on the website www.ackthikadiocese.org. Our friends there also report a gathering of linked parishes with lots of contact and great impetus for new ideas for the link. Plans are also in hand by the bishops for a tripartite gathering at Thika in October 2015 – to include other churches. So more later.

With fine summer weather continuing there is recent news of Church of England sport, with a West Country flavour, which involved a church cricket team which beat the Vatican. The visitors were reported as in good form with bowling economical and ecumenical. The Right Reverend Mark Rylands wearing white despite being 13th man – just in case.

Every year the Royal School of Church music invites churches around the world to designate one Sunday as RSCM Music Sunday providing a chance for a celebratation of church music with thanks for the power of music. Next year that date of RSCM Sunday falls on Sunday, June 21st 2015 and coincides with World Music day.

The publishers of the Church of England Newspaper each week send copies of their paper to prison chaplains and are seeking help over the postage costs. Donations are welcome at the Church of England Newspaper, 14 Greet College Streret, London SWIP 3RX.

Dates for October – church tours starting at St Andrew's Church, Chardstock, from 11am to 3pm (details 01460 22503) with tours continuing as required.

Friday, October 3rd finds Christian Aid serving light lunches between 12noon and 2pm at the URC Church, Cross Street, Seaton, costing £3.50 and proceeds to Christain Aid – all welcome.

October 5th is the kick off for the third-annual Minster Challenge Run, at Axe Vale Community College together with shorter events for the young and easy going competitors. There is entertainment by Karizma Majorettes, a second hand bookstall and refreshments.

Honiton Festival's winter concert series is now in full swing having started on September 26th – details at www.thehonitonfestival.co.uk or from Honiton TIC on 01404 43716.

On October 4th there is to be at Ottery St Mary's parish church a concert featuring the Budleigh Salterton male voice choir, together with the Exeter Ladies Barbershop choir and the River City chorus. Tickets cost £8 and proceeds go towards the Ottery Help Scheme.

Messy Church in Ottery is at 4pm on October 13th in the church. All welcome but children must be accompanied. Harvest gifts will go towards the food bank and collections for St Petrock's. Celebrations were recently held for the 90th birthday of one of Ottery's choir members who is a regular singer and very active.

As the seasons move on, an advertising campaign is being launched to stress the real meaning of Christmas and first reports indicate great success with the young. The facts were obtained by the ComRes survey done in early January 2014 with a sample of 2,000 people across UK. Last year, a similar task increased its representation, in that there were 22,000 downloads of posters, 9,000 downloads of radio advertisements, and 140,000 page views of the website. The campaign is now in its sixth year and all the material is free. Resources are available from the website www.christmasstartswithchrist.com

Marion Anchor concludes for us: "After all the excitement in Axminster Churches Together of local carnivals, there is no shortage of excitement. We look forward to coming events. Prayer surrounds all events with the next for the Axe Valley on October 7th, 7.30pm at Purzebrook Chapel. On the first Wednesday of the month in the Minster at 6.30pm the new Taize style prayers have started.

"Churches Together grew out of Cornwall Prayer Initiative. Their next gathering is Saturday, October 7th in Plymouth. Thanks to modern technology there will be input from North amd East Devon without travelling there! At our last meeting here we were encouraged to pray systemically for our neighbours, using the acronym BLESS.

"Our celebration of bountiful harvests and full supermarket shelves serve as a reminder of our great blessings. The delivery of Christmas catalogues reminds us to start collection ready for Christmas hampers when its use is expanded from the steady flow during the year to help meet needs of families in financial distress. Prayers are not restricted to local needs as we remember refugees and those suffering persecution in warring countries."

theWI INSPIRING WOMEN Women's Institutes ROUND UP

COLYTON: AT the beginning of the September meeting, the ladies from Colyton WI who had appeared in Colyton carnival gathered together to show off their hats decorated with poppies, all handmade by Jacky Roberts Wake. The WI stall raised over £200 for carnival funds.

On October 5th treasurer Sallie Herniman is walking to raise money for the East Devon Hospice. The forthcoming programme is busy with a meeting for CWICS, new reading for the book club "The Blasphemer" and the autumn council meeting in Barnstaple on October 15th. Also, a shopping trip to Bath will be held on October 28th - contact Katie Darby for details. There is a tea for a visiting WIs on Saturday, September 20th.

The next meeting will be on the third Tuesday in October and will be a harvest tea – members are invited to bring a plate. The quiz evening at Beer is on Thursday, November 13th.

Tea was served by Annette Stillwell and Joan Freeland, with chocolate chip biscuits made by members. Members were then entranced by a talk with slides by Kathryn Baxendale, giving a fascinating insight into the world of moths. Kathryn gave a very professional and knowledgeable presentation with much enthusiasm for her project of recording and photographing the moths that settle in her moth box. Jean Hutton expressed the club's thanks.

After the raffle, in aid of Denham, the judging of the chocolate chip cookies declared those made by Jean Hutton as the winner. The flower competition was won jointly by Teresa Hattam and Barbara Cummings, with Jean Hutton in second and Brenda Clark third.

KILMINGTON: AT their latest meeting Kilmington WI welcomed speaker Mark Seogalutze from Macsorsons fishmongers, speaking about preparing and cooking fish.

Mark runs a mobile fish van which visits Bridport, Langport and Axminster markets. All the fish is sourced from Lyme Regis direct from the fishermen and caught by day boat fishing, meaning it is very fresh.

Mark demonstrated filleting, for which he uses a flexible and very sharp knife. He also showed members how to skin Dover sole and skate, told them about whiting and pollock and gave them all a fillet to take home. He was warmly thanked by Mary Seward.

Both the monthly competition and the flower competition were won by Phyllis. There was news of WI Centenary meetings at Woolbrook and Exeter. Arrangements were also made for the autumn council meeting at Barnstaple on October 15th where Miranda Krestovnikoff will speak.

Barbara detailed the craft and leisure group activities and members then talked about their forthcoming £5 soup and sweet lunch on October 11th. Three members will make soup and several volunteered to make sweets. It is hoped that people will come and enjoy.

The next meeting entitled "Is there anybody out there?" will be held on October 9th, 7pm at Kilmington Village Hall, when the competition will be for a depiction of what our nearest space neighbour may look like.

AXMOUTH: PRESIDENT Denise Gates welcomed members and two visitors to the September meeting of Axmouth WI.

Discussions took place regarding 2015 diary dates with talks on jewellery, belly dancing, flower arranging and Israeli circle dancing on the cards. Members were also informed about trips to the Norman Lockyer Observatory in Sidmouth, Salisbury Market and to see "Jesus Christ Superstar", and possibly setting up a book club, holding a quiz and WI centenary annual general meeting.

Ann Pengelly of Queen Street Studios in Seaton gave members an insight into the history of glass, starting with the Phoenicians.

Glass is made from sand, potash and soda before being heated and colours added. Members were shown several pieces of glass ad pictures of beautiful stained glass windows covering the 13th century to the 18th century. Ann runs 10-week stained glass workshops in her studio.

Virginia gave a report on the Food, Craft & Skills group's outing to Dingles Village in Tavistock. The next meeting will be on September 29th when the theme will be beaded necklaces, October 6th will be machine embroidery and November 3rd paper roses.

Flower of the month competition results were as follows: 1st Lorraine Hipkin, 2nd Val Trendell. The competition for decorated glass: 1st Val Trendell, 2nd Sue Barnard. Competition for chocolate chop cookie: 1st Sue Barnard.

The next meeting will be held on October 21st with the theme Christmas craft, 2.30pm in Axmouth Hall. For further information call secretary Lorraine Hipkin on 01297 22560.

Helping your child to achieve their ambitions

WHATEVER your child's skills and interests, Sidmouth College has a great deal to offer.

Students achieve academic success, develop their creativity, excel on the sports field and encounter a plethora of new experiences in a safe and enjoyable environment, encouraged by a team of dedicated and highly experienced professionals.

Rated 'Good' with outstanding areas of practice by Ofsted in February 2012, the College has moved from strength to strength over recent years. We believe that learning is an adventure to be enjoyed and our focus is on delivering exciting and challenging teaching which motivates students to achieve the very best they can.

Your child will be encouraged to have strong ambitions and work hard to achieve these. Our overarching aim is to provide our young people with the skills and qualifications they need to be happy, successful adults and our curriculum is personalised to meet students' individual needs.

You can find information about our performance on our website at www.sidmouthcollege.devon.sch.uk.

Beyond the classroom, students have the opportunity to engage in a wide programme of interesting, fun and educational activities which extend the curriculum, widen their interests and succeed in new hobbies and experiences.

Students who enjoy sport are encouraged to trial for College sports teams and compete, with a great deal of success, in fixtures and events at a local, regional and county level throughout the school year.

Please join us on our Open Day or, to arrange an individual visit, call 01395 514823. We look forward to meeting you.

Clinical Hypnotherapy

RECENT heath headlines indicate that all is not well with the way we look after ourselves. From 'mental health time-bomb' to 'toxic stress load on our students', we see alarm bells ringing far and wide.

Recent surveys suggest that many more people suffer from anxiety, stress and depression than previously thought. Maybe a neighbour of yours or a member of your family is struggling? There is no shame in this; in these days of constant pressure and striving, is there any wonder we need a little help tackling our feelings of helplessness or hopelessness?

Stress and pressure starts in full force for our school-age children and continues undermining confidence and destabilising peace of mind relentlessly, year upon year.

On the positive side, it is at last being recognised that a healthy mind is as important as a healthy body. There is general agreement that we need to act quickly to provide help to those suffering; early intervention is crucial. If we can teach our young people techniques to cope with stress and difficult times, we are setting them up for life.

Unfortunately, very few of us are lucky enough to be referred for therapy by our GPs and even then the wait is often interminable and we have no say in whom we see. Until the NHS funds mental health properly, we are forced to seek out help privately. Cost can seem prohibitive, but it has never been more important to consider investing in our own mental health. Would you leave your car to maintain itself or ignore a faulty valve in a washing machine? If we break down, it is not so easy to pick up the pieces.

Freedom from anxiety

ARE you fed up feeling stressed, anxious and tired? Do you constantly worry? Do you often avoid situations that make you feel anxious? If so hypnotherapy can help you to feel physically relaxed and mentally calmer, more positive and confident facing life and your future generally.

Samantha Davey, a registered hypnotherapist, says "I see more people with stress/anxiety than any other issue. Hypnotherapy helps you to access the inner resources you already have to overcome worrying thoughts, moving from fear and nervousness to confidence, faith and belief in yourself – enabling you to effectively manage challenging situations....and enjoy life more."

Hypnotherapy is a safe, enjoyable therapy that often brings rapid results. Most people find it a deeply relaxing, calming and up-lifting experience that can lead to transformation in many areas of life. All that's required is an open mind, desire to change, belief that this is possible and willingness to fully participate. Beginning a course of hypnotherapy could be one of the most empowering decisions you ever make.

Samantha offers a friendly, professional service in Seaton and Axminster. If you'd like to find out how hypnotherapy can improve your emotional and physical wellbeing contact Samantha for a free consultation on 07809447720, or email info@hypno4freedom.co.uk

You've lost that loving feeling...

DO YOU feel your partner isn't seeing you the same way they used to, that their eyes don't light up for you any more, or there isn't the same warmth in their tone of voice when they speak to you?

Sometimes the pressures of life can push tenderness away and as the years pass, one stress changes to another – from young children and sleepless nights to work demands and financial strain. Then life can become taken up with your children's homework, exams, and activities until they leave home – if they do! And then what?

If your disappointment and feelings of neglect have turned to frustration and resentment, are they expressed as criticism and irritation?

When couples stop appreciating each other's efforts, which may be different, to support and care for each other, energy and enthusiasm for the relationship can be sapped away, often being re-directed into friends or activities.

If you are caught in this cycle and it feels too hard to change on your own, counselling may help.

Val Davis
Traditional Acupuncture

Acupuncture can improve and maintain health and energy and enhance a sense of well-being

ACCORDING to traditional Chinese philosophy, our health is dependent on the body's motivating energy (qi) moving in a smooth and balanced way through a series of channels beneath the skin.

Acupuncture can affect the quality of qi, your body's vital energy, by the insertion of very fine needles into specific points along these channels. This stimulates the body's healing response and restores natural balance. Treatment is aimed at the root cause of your condition as well as your main symptoms. This approach helps with resolving your problem and enhancing your feeling of well-being. You may notice other niggling problems resolve as your main health complaint improves.

The type of conditions that I mostly see in my clinics include the following: arthritis, back pain and sciatica, poor circulation, low energy levels, hormonal/menopausal symptoms, pregnancy management, fertility problems, weight management, and addictions such as smoking. However, you don't have to be ill in the conventional sense to benefit from acupuncture, sometimes people come to see me because they are feeling low, unwell in themselves, or maybe not sleeping as well as they would like to.

Professional Acupuncturists spend at least 3 years training at degree level to become an Acupuncturist. We are then entitled to join the British Acupuncture Council and to use the letters Lic.Ac., B.Ac.C after our names. We also have public liability and professional indemnity insurance. Many of us have also studied at post-graduate level and are constantly updating our skills and experience.

So, why not give me a ring and see if I can help.

Michelle Hague
Hypnotherapy

Helping to cope with stress and anxiety

HYPNOSIS is not a new technique. The history of trance goes all the way back, there was the oracle of Delphi and the sleep temples of Egypt were known to use the same principals. A hypnotic trance is very much like daydreaming. How do you get someone to believe the daydream? We use the power of suggestion.

Surgeons used hypnosis during the Civil War, when they didn't have anesthesia. In 1841, James Braid, a Scottish surgeon, coined the term neuro-hypnotism, which was shortened to hypnosis and comes from the Greek god of sleep, Hypnos.

Hypnosis has been tainted over the years, by association with stories of people doing odd things while on stage, but while someone under hypnosis is less aware of his or her surroundings, they can come out of a trance at any time.

Hypnosis doesn't work for every-one. People who are intuitive, imaginative, and trusting can respond to suggestions more easily, and some people have to practice a lot to get their mind to settle and to stay focused during sessions.

The procedure is surprisingly simple. In hypnosis you will learn to relax. You can learn to put yourself in any place you choose, take a trip, imagine being at home, or where ever you would like to be. You begin to feel more relaxed and open to positive suggestions and you learn how to be more in control.

That principle is what can help smokers quit. Harnessing someone's imagination can be very powerful, and can help people who want to lose weight, and is also effective for pain management, insomnia and helping deal with anxiety stress, fear and phobia, and much more. If you want to find out if hypnosis can help you, call Michelle on 07761773563

Rose Osteopaths

ROSE Osteopaths (Honiton branch) is based in the Honiton Dental Centre and provides Osteopathic treatment to patients of all ages. We pride ourselves on the high level of patient care we offer and our patient centred approach to treatment. Our Osteopath Rosie Russell (M Ost) is passionate about Osteopathy and its ability to produce great benefits in pain management and general wellbeing.

Osteopathy is a method of diagnosis, treatment and rehabilitation of a variety of medical conditions and disorders. We look at the patient 'as a whole' and therefore treatment does not target symptoms but treats those parts of the body that may have caused the problem. Treatment modalities may include hands-on methods such as soft tissue massage, mobilisation and manipulative techniques, and advice on such topics as ergonomics and nutrition. In addition, specific exercises and stretches may be recommended to aid recovery and promote health.

Rachel Rendell Healer and Psychic Medium

I am a psychic medium giving private readings and Clairvoyant demonstrations. I run several development and meditation groups and workshops.

Readings

Connect with your loved ones in a private reading. My reading for you will bring precisely what is needed in your life right now. I link with my guides who bring through your friends or relatives in the spirit world. I give a clear reading helping you to become aware of the options and general direction you could take in your life.

Can't get out of the house? I offer telephone readings and email readings.

Healing

I was attuned to Reiki and qualified as a Crystal healer in 2003. I work in Axminster where I have my lovely therapy room. Reiki and Crystal healing can help with so many things because I work on both physical & emotional levels. Having trouble sleeping? Feel emotional but don't know why? Feeling drained? Healing can help with all these things and anything physical from broken bones to cancer. The client remains fully clothed whilst either sitting in a chair or laying on the couch then I place my hands around the body to channel the healing energy. The client may experience heat or tingling sensations and a deep feeling of peace and calm.

Lindy Parry
Podiatrist/Chiropodist

I HOLD my private chiropody clinic at Townsend House Surgery in Seaton on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays.

I offer a range of treatments from a simple nail cut to nail surgery, and each treatment plan is priced accordingly.

The nail cutting only service is a shorter appointment and is ideal for those that don't have any other foot care needs. Others like to alternate nail cuts with chiropody treatments as it best suits their requirements. I always aim to work with the patient to find the best treatment plan to suit each individual. Patients feet are then monitored during treatment so that changes can be made should the need arise.

Diabetic patients who attend for chiropody will also have a diabetic foot assessment carried out during their first treatment, and will then be monitored and re-assessed as necessary.

My chiropody clinics are available to anybody seeking help with their feet and Townsend House and I look forward to welcoming you.

Bookings can be made by calling 01297 22956.

Counselling

I work with individuals, couples and families, encouraging, supporting and empowering them to make positive changes. I also help people to see how they may be repeating types of behaviour and thoughts impacting on themselves and others.

Counselling can help with:

- More intimate and satisfying relationships
- Greater sense of self worth and self awareness
- Increased confidence and self esteem
- Feeling calmer and more relaxed
- Better communication skills
- Develop healthier patterns of relating to others

Counselling provides an opportunity to talk through issues in a clear, direct and honest way while working towards the changes you require.

About Me

I am a Qualified Relate Counsellor with over 24 years experience and a registered member of BACP

I am also a Group Trainer, Family Counsellor and Therapeutic Mediator. I share a Group Practice in Somerset with six other practitioners. I run my own practice from the Health & Wellbeing Centre in Axminster, where I am also Director and Chair of the Trustees.

I love working with people and supporting them with their emotional needs. I am passionate about enabling people to achieve a greater understanding of themselves and their relationship with others. Visit my website axminstercounselling.co.uk or call me on 01297 32530

Stoptober

STOPTOBER is an NHS campaign to encourage people to stop smoking throughout the month of October. There are approximately 10 million adults in Britain who smoke cigarettes. Research suggests that those who successfully give up for four weeks are five times more likely to stay smoke-free. Last year, thousands of people successfully quit in the biggest mass participation stop smoking challenge ever. This year tens of thousands of people have already signed up. Why not join the Stoptober challenge today?

One of the top tips to make this challenge a success is to surround yourself with support and this is where the therapists and classes at the Axminster Health and Wellbeing Centre can help you. We are a non-profit making, community based charity that offers a wide range of complementary therapies including acupuncture, hypnotherapy, counselling, reflexology and nutritional advice. Alongside this we hold weekly classes in yoga and meditation. All of these treatments and classes can help you in your quest to give up smoking. For more information please see our website at www.axminsterwellbeing.com, call us on 01297 32331 or drop in and see us.

COLYTON Football Club

Peace Memorial Sports Centre and Playing Field

First Team: FRESHA Devon & Exeter Division Two

Reserves: FRESHA Devon & Exeter Division Eight

COLYTON Football Club currently have two senior mens teams, The first XI and Reserve XI who play their football in the Devon and Exeter Division Two and Eight respectively. Home fixtures are played at the Peace Memorial Playing Fields, in Colyton.

The first team currently sit in third position after a very promising start to the season with four wins and a loss, following a tenth place finish last season. The Tanners' first string will be looking to continue with another three points, when they entertain Sidmouth Town Reserves this Saturday, October 4th.

The Reserves XI, who finished in sixth place last year, have also started this season very promisingly, accumulating ten points from their opening five fixtures. Next up for the reserves is a trip to Magelake Meadows where they will take on an unbeaten Culm United 2nds.

The club has over forty players signed on for the forthcoming season, including several new signings: Ashley Hall, Matthew Hall and Wayne Waddon (Millwey Rise), William Harrington (Seaton Town), George Moore (Sidmouth Town), James Salter (Axminster Town) and Matt Williams (Farway United).

Alan Potter and Wayne Waddon have taken on the role of managing the First Team this season. Matthew Orsman is now managing the Reserve Team, with the assistance of Gary Bridge.

Alan said: "After many years playing at Beer and Seaton, and managing at Seaton for 7 good years, it was nice to get the opportunity to be involved with Colyton. My dad was a Colyton boy and always wanted me to play at Chantry. Unfortunately he passed away before I had the chance, but I hope that he's looking down with a big smile on his face."

Wayne said: "I started playing for Colyton at youth level but made my debut in adult football for Axminster Town.

"I played for Axmouth United, Millwey Rise and finally back to Colyton and have been lucky enough to win trophies or promotion for all the clubs I've been involved with.

"After speaking with the players and Alan, I decided that together we could add some new faces to the squad and strengthen the club as a whole. I personally have great expectations for this season and believe that both the first and reserve teams will be pushing for promotion come the end of the season, that is the clubs goal for this season.

> "...a club which supports the local community and also values the support it receives."

"In time, I feel that if we can continue to work with the promising group we have, whilst adding a couple of new faces each season and giving the young players a chance to shine then there is no reason why Colyton can't be mixing it in the league with the likes of Seaton Town and Beer Albion. That would be my biggest achievement in football. What would make it particularly sweet would be the fact that we'd done it in the right way – wihout promising players any rewards, just good old fashioned team spirit and local players who want to play for the fun of the game. Let the good times return to Colyton Football Club."

Any new players are welcome to turn up to a training session, which take place at Colyton Grammar School on Tuesday evenings, from 19:00-20:30.

Sponsors

TCAS Ltd Accountants are the current first team sponsor and away kit sponsor, and Mole Avon are sponsors of the reserve team. Both companies have signed up to very generous sponsorship agreements and the club are very appreciative of their support.

History

A FORMER vicar in Colyton founded the club, originally Colyton Working Men's Football Club. The Reverend G E F Molyneux staged the meeting at the parish's former Sunday School and the team played its first league game on Saturday, September 3rd 1910 in The Perry Street & District Football League.

The record books will show that it was not the most auspicious of starts, finishing bottom of the league with a record of:

P	W	D	L	F	A	Pts
16	0	0	16	8	116	0

Obviously things improved and slowly but surely Colyton established themselves as a very well respected footballing side. The first few seasons saw home games being played out of the town in the village of Umborne.

The club then moved to a pitch called 'Sheep's Nose' which was on top of Mount Hill. The home ground moved again to Hillhead, to Bolt Field, near the Railway Station. After World War II, Colyton settled at the long standing home of Chantry Bridge. The farmer who owned the field lived by the pitch and he was very keen on football and watched every home game.

He charged an annual rent of £10 per season with a bonus that he reduced the rent every time the club won a home game. The club relocated to the Peace Memorial Playing Fields for the start of the 2008-09 season, leaving many clubs envious of the pitches and open spaces available to Colyton.

The 1920s were a very successful time for the club, having attracted top players, many of them teachers from the Grammar School. This success was highlighted in 1925 when the club won the prestigious Morrison Bell Cup, an amazing feat at the time for a small 'village' team.

The opponents in the final were Budleigh Salterton and the game ended as a draw. The replay was held at Honiton Town, with Colyton winning 1-0. The victorious team returned to Colyton by train, where they were met by the town's brass band, and they then paraded the cup through the lanes to a reception in the Town Hall, which was attended by virtually all inhabitants of the town.

The 1950s saw Colyton leave Perry Street football and join the ranks of the Exeter & District League, with a Youth Team emerging around the same time. They soon became a real force in local football with notable players such as Harold Gooding, Dennis Parr and Ken Clifford Snr leading the way.

Colyton saw a barren run between 1966 and 1978, with no trophies won. However, this changed in the 1978-79 season with the club winning a historic treble under the management of Eric Pomeroy. Colyton helped themselves to the Intermediate 1 East Division title, the Devon Intermediate Cup and the Grandisson Cup.

Over the seasons Colyton have won many cups and league titles, but have always had their feet on the ground as a community club which supports the local community and also values the support it receives from the community. There have been many generous sponsors who have backed the club over the seasons, and the club are extremely grateful for all the donations and help it has received.

Questions and Answers with Colyton FC 1st Team Captain, Paul Millman

1. How long have you been associated with Colyton FC, and in what capacities?

I have been involved with Colyton Football Club since about the age of 9 or 10 with the youth team. Apart from 1 or 2 seasons I have spent my whole football career at Colyton. I am currently 1st Team captain and club shirt sponsor, I have also joined the committee in the last year and help out wherever possible on match days.

2. Who have been the best three players you've seen play in the red shirts of Colyton FC?

The best three players – that's a difficult one, having played for so many years. In recent times, Callum Somers has been the best striker since I have been playing. George Moore is one of the best around here and makes my life in midfield a lot easier nowadays! Many people may not remember this guy, but Martin Johnson was always a leader and when I was a youngster he certainly made a good impression on me with his ability to drive the team forward, and his passion every game.

3. Do any particular games or incidents involving 'The Tanners' stick in your memory?

The main game was the Grandisson Cup final against Sidbury United, which was the first final that Colyton had been in for some time. I felt very nervous, but the team played perfectly and we won. I had the duty of lifting the cup and that feeling will stay with me forever, especially with many of the Colyton crowd watching.

4. How would you improve facilities at your Peace Memorial Ground home?

We have had many improvements at The Peace Memorial Ground over the years, and are spoilt with the facilities we have. It is very difficult to point out anything that we should improve, but it would be good to reward the supporters somehow. Perhaps we could provide something to keep them dry or provide some seating – I know some of our games can be stressful to watch!

5. What are your hopes for the new season in the Devon & Exeter League?

This season we have a great mix of lads. More players seem to turn up every year and the amount of youngsters can be overwhelming. To win more games than we lose and come out in the top half of the table would be fantastic, a solid season to get some of the youngsters used to men's football.

6. Name some of your young players that we should look out for in the future.

There are so many young players at Colyton now. Matt Berry is someone who will be a constant threat to the opposition in years to come, his speed and ability to play almost anywhere is quite impressive. In the speed stakes, Danny Searle stands out – he can run at a pace that some of us older players can only dream of, and he is also able to play at a high standard. George Richards is worth a mention as he seems to win the ball and take on players without any fuss, and scoring from long range also doesn't seem a problem for him! At the other end of the scale Tom Richards is very entertaining, his passion for winning the ball when he has no right to is unbelievable! He never gives up and is not scared of anyone!

National Home Security Month

October 2014

National Home Security Month is back to bust winter burglaries

AS THE clocks go back the criminals come out, with statistics showing a 20%* increase in home burglaries during the darker months, and the average cost of a winter burglary weighing in at a hefty £1,746.

With this in mind, October 1 marks the start of National Home Security Month (NHSM), a nationwide initiative, supported by Yale, which runs throughout the month and is designed to create awareness around the importance of home security.

To combat the rise in burglary at this time of year, NHSM will feature a series of hints and tips to highlight the ways you can keep your homes and families safe during the dark nights.

The campaign will feature four weekly themes, with each focusing on a different aspect of home security to get you security-savvy in time for winter.

The first week will focus on door and window security. Many burglars often avoid smashing windows but attempt to force the frame itself, so the campaign will highlight the importance of ensuring all windows are fitted with at least one appropriate lock. We'll also be looking at lock snapping crimes and door lock standards designed to protect you from this method of attack.

The focus in the second week will shift to protecting valuables. On average, us Britons are spending £822 on Christmas presents each year, not only increasing the value of items in our homes but the temptation to criminals. With this in mind, we'll be looking at the best way to secure your valuables over the Christmas period and keep the burglars at bay.

The dark nights often meaning leaving your house in darkness and arriving home in darkness, so in week three we'll be shining a light on outdoor security to help you feel secure inside and out. In the final week we'll be hurling you into the world of future home security, looking at the evolution of the Smart Home and all the latest security gadgets and gizmos available for your home.

The NHSM Facebook and Twitter channels will be supplying daily tips for keeping your home and your outdoors safe and secure during the dark nights. For more information visit www.homesecuritymonth.com, search for National Home Security Month on Facebook or Twitter.

Our excellent reputation for innovative designs, cutting-edge computer design software and friendly, experienced staff is core to our business, and the reason why Axminster Kitchen & Bedrooms should always be your first call to plan your new project.

At Axminster Kitchens we are proud to offer luxury designer Kitchens at affordable prices matched with an unbeatable service that begins from your very first visit to the showroom, right through to the fully finished installation.

SHOWROOM

In addition to specializing in high quality RotPunkt kitchens designed and made in Germany, we also offer beautiful kitchens and bedrooms which are manufactured here in England.

At our new showroom you can see an impressive selection of display kitchens to inspire you, and explore the wide selection of Neff & Siemens appliances, Blanco sinks and taps, Granite, Quartz and stone capped worktops on display.

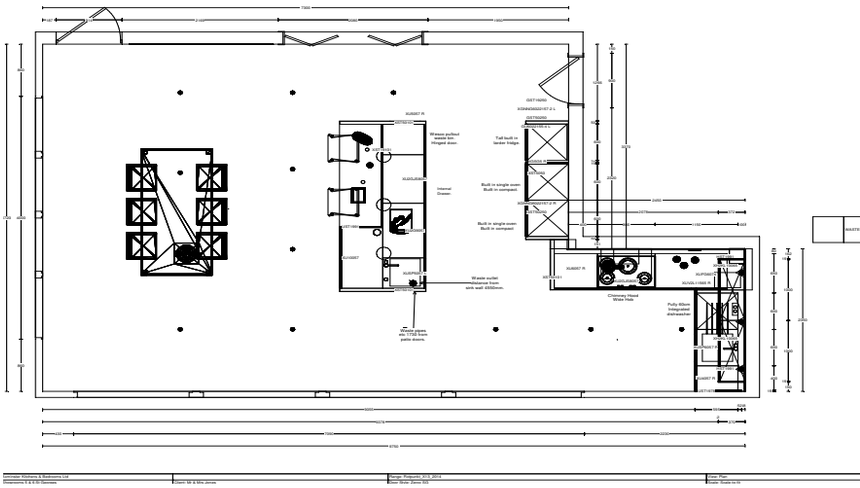
Our experienced designers are here to guide you through the many and varied choices associated with a new kitchen, such as door styles, appliances, work surfaces, sinks, taps and lighting etc.

DESIGN

Every kitchen we've ever designed and installed is unique, because every client is different. Inspired by your tastes, home and lifestyle, we create a bespoke kitchen that strikes the ideal balance between your aesthetic and practical requirements. We understand that the needs of every customer vary, and work closely with you to select the features and products that are integral to your perfect kitchen.

We create unique solutions using state of the art computer aided design software that enables you to enjoy full 3D photo quality pictures of your new kitchen long before installation.

Here at Axminster Kitchens we're passionate about beautiful, functional kitchens. Not limited by style or substance we simply design what works for you, selecting from our extensive range of high quality suppliers. Every detail is carefully considered to make the most of your space, existing features and the latest products available.



HOMES and Gardens SUMMER

LET THESE LOCAL BUSINESSES MAKE YOUR HOUSE A HOME & YOUR GARDEN GLORIOUS

Eden Garden Developments

EDEN Garden Developments make finding a contractor simple by providing for all clients' Garden Design, Construction & Care requirements, large and small locally. The Design & Build unit of A1 Environmental Services, offers a friendly, professional, integrated service.

Installing all types of Fencing, Gates and Decking, Walling and Patios, Eden offers a complete landscaping service including Lawns Horticulture and Aquatics, either as a package or in affordable stages.

A timely example, given the present gusty conditions, is fencing where this can either be repaired or replaced, depending upon condition and the budget available. This can be either post and panel, close board, post and rail or picket fencing and Eden also supply and fit gates (see insets). In fact "cost leadership" is at the forefront of the business whilst keeping quality and the principles of design paramount .

Business founder, designer and artisan craftsman Norman Brown holds an MSc. in Environmental Planning & Management and has contributed to books, periodicals and the gardening press Further information can be obtained by calling 01297 23596 (mobile 07977 415446) or visiting the web pages at a1-environmental.com

WURLITZER SHOWTIME

"ANOTHER great afternoon" was the verdict of the audience at the Beer Wurlitzer Show on Saturday, September 13th when Richard Monks, a dance and theatre organist, made a welcome return. His lively and foot-tapping programme was wide-ranging from show tunes to ragtime and Richard commented favourably on the further improvements to the Wurlitzer since he performed at Beer in 2013. As well as being an excellent musician and playing across the whole of the UK, Richard is a young man who is also interested in aviation and the sciences, having an honours degree in biochemistry.

Richard was pleased to meet the audience at the mid-way interval and it is a feature of all the shows that the audience is invited to chat to the visiting organist and also the team who are dedicated to maintaining and improving the oldest Wurlitzer in the UK. Unsung members of the team are Cyn and Frank Dommett who unfailingly each month provide many cuppas in record time.

The penultimate show for 2014 will be on Saturday 11 October at 2.00pm, when Len Rawle, MBE, one of the UK's top theatre organists, returns to entertain. Shows are held at the Congregational Church, Fore Street, Beer, EX12 3JQ - admittance is £7.00 on the door which includes interval refreshments. For further information please visit www.beer-wurlitzer.org.uk or phone 01297 24892.

The Subways come to Exeter ahead of fourth album release

HAVING recently broken new ground by playing South Africa and Russia, The Subways recent UK live return saw a packed out performance at The Great Escape Festival, headlining Concorde 2 on the Saturday night, their first UK show in almost a year. Alongside Glastonbury, the band recently headlined the Camden Rocks Festival in London, and have a main stage slot at this year's Hurricane / Southside Festival in Germany,

They are currently residing in Brussels writing songs for what will be their 4th album.

The Subways are embarking on an intimate UK tour this week, with the tour coming to Exeter's Cavern on Tuesday, October 7th.

Visit exetercavern.com for more details.

Saturday Night at the Movies

OTTERY St Mary Silver Band is holding its Autumn Concert on Saturday, October 4th at The Institute, Ottery St Mary. The concert will feature music from many popular and famous films, including James Bond, Disney, Born Free and many more. There will be tunes which everyone will recognise as well as a few less well-known ones.

Tickets cost £5, to include tea/coffee and biscuits, and can be obtained from the Ottery Tourist Information Centre, from the Ottery branch of Gilbert Stephens solicitors, by phoning 01404 814502 or on the door.

Virtuoso guitarist Willy Porter heads to Devon

Wisconsin native has toured with Sting, Paul Simon and Tori Amos

WISCONSIN native Willy Porter is a guitar virtuoso with an insinuating voice that sneaks past your defenses and gets under your skin. The Washington Post has called him "a dazzling acoustic guitarist with a moody baritone," while the Boston Globe describes him as "an acoustic picker with the Olympian speed of Leo Kottke bolstered by rootsy vocals and twisting, offbeat lyrics."

Willy has toured with Tori Amos, Paul Simon, Sting, and Jethro Tull, whose leader, Ian Anderson, said of him: "Willy Porter's music demonstrates admirably that the technical excellence of his guitar-playing will never overwhelm the essence of the song itself. In perfect symbiosis, the disciplines of performance and songwriting combine together to create the unique work for which he is admired by professional peers and audiences alike. Oh – and a damn fine singer too. Thank goodness he doesn't play the flute."

His music is engaging, original, and occasionally haunting, and between songs he tells hilarious stories, perhaps inspired by his background in improvised comedy. Each tour date became a unique event, a musical experience much greater than just a review of past, present and future recorded work.

He toured the UK in Autumn 2013 and February 2014 with Martyn Joseph, and his performances went down a storm every night with audiences all asking the same question… "When he is coming back?"

Willy Porter plays at Exeter's Barnfield Theatre TOMORROW (Wednesday, October 1st). For more details and tickets visit the website at www.barnfieldtheatre.org.uk or call 01392 270891/271808.

Seaton Tramway's Halloween Week of Tram of Terror by Day and Shock O Horror Zombie Fest by Night!

SEATON Tramway, will be offering spooky family days out in Devon during the Autumn half term from Monday, October 27th until Saturday, November 1st. Halloween "Trams of Terror" will run by day during that period up to Colyton for our younger visitors and at night they magically transform into "Shock 'O Horror Zombie Fest" trams for much "older" children to experience the dark side of Seaton Tramway.

Not for the fainthearted, our single deck trams, very scarily decked out, and driven by our most gruesome drivers will take "Tram of Terror" passengers up to Colyton for some spine-tingling spooky entertainment. Every child will receive a baddie bag and fancy dress is optional. Revolting refreshments can be purchased at the Tramstop Café.

Ticket prices for the Tram of Terror tram ride, spooky entertainment and Baddie bag (for children only) are £10 per adult, children (3-15) £10 and children under 3 £5. Departures from Seaton Terminus every 30 minutes from 10.30am until 2.00pm. There are only a limited number of seats on our single deck tramcars, so to avoid disappointment, please book your place by telephoning 01297 20375 in advance.

At Halloween time, what better way for local people and holiday makers to explore the terrors of the Jurassic Coast at Seaton and the townships of Colyford and Colyton, as well as the River Axe Estuary and Axe Estuary Wetlands with all the amazing wildlife to be seen, well in the daytime at least!

For those travelling on a normal tramcar during the daytime will be subject to the normal fares and timetable prevailing at the time.

All tickets can be purchased at the Seaton Terminus and Colyton Station ticket offices (or on line at: www.tram.co.uk)

LADY LIKE

AWARD-WINNING comedian Susan Calman is embarking on her first ever UK tour, and is heading to the Marine Theatre this Friday, October 3rd.

If you've seen her before, her new show 'Lady Like' will be a reassuring couple of hours spent with the woman her neighbours call "the mad cat lady". If you don't know who she is, 'Lady Like' will, at the very least, make you feel better about your own life. A show about being older, wiser and liking yourself whatever anyone might say.

Susan performs at the Marine Theatre from 8pm. Tickets are £14 or £12 (concessions) available from www.marinetheatre.com or by calling 01297 442138.

Orchestral Concert in the Joanna Leach Hall at the Beehive Honiton

THE 60 players of Roger Hendy's ISCA Ensemble will be gathering for their first concert at the Beehive on the 4th October at 7.30pm

The concert has been organised in association with the Joanna Leach Foundation and is being given in memory of Liz Tirard the Foundation's dynamic Company Secretary and Honiton Town Councillor who died in January this year.

The programme of popular works includes Dvorak's 'New World' Symphony and the challenging Brahms Violin Concerto in D major, to be played by the young virtuoso violinist, Emmanuel Bach.

Emmanuel, after playing many charitable engagements and recently completing his university degree - a double first in music - is now embarking upon a soloist career; his first professional engagement with the ISCA Ensemble.

Says Roger Hendy: "I had been introduced to Emmanuel's playing and had been impressed on hearing a recording. But when I heard him play at a JL Foundation recital where he was most ably accompanied by Jenny Stern, I was literally 'blown away' by his musical commitment, presence and the virtuosic performance of some extremely difficult pieces".

Mike Beville (trustee of the JLF): "It was Liz, being a friend of Roger's, who made the connection and it seemed to be so appropriate to support the orchestra by covering the soloist's fee. Our trustees are very impressed by the work Roger and his orchestral players do to keep classical music alive in the area. In keeping with our aim of encouraging professionals to work with amateurs, we have offered to fund a soloist each year to play with the orchestra".

Emmanuel Bach

Emmanuel began the violin at the age of five and is currently studying with Natasha Boyarsky. He has performed in Britain as both a soloist and chamber musician in venues including the Leeds International Concert Series, the Wigmore Hall (for which he was kindly loaned a 1711 Gobetti violin by Peter Biddulph), and St John's Smith Square, and has also given concerts in France and Italy. Emmanuel recently toured South Africa, where he gave solo recitals and played Bruch's Scottish Fantasy at multiple venues with the Pretoria University Orchestra under Eric Rycroft. His performances of this work at the 2011 National Arts Festival in Oudtshoorn led to him being nominated for the Upcoming Artist Award. This year, he performed the Khatchaturian Violin Concerto with the Oxford Philomusica in the final of their concerto competition, in which he was runner-up.

Chamber music also forms a key part of Emmanuel's life and he has received coaching from members of the Wihan, Elias, Skampa and Allegri Quartets. Emmanuel regularly gives recitals together with his mother, the pianist Jenny Stern, and is due to perform with her alongside the Tagore String Trio in a concert later this year.

The ISCA Ensemble

The Ensemble comprises experienced amateur and a few former professional players.

Dr. Antony Clements is the leader of the Ensemble. He has worked with Roger for many years. Thanks to him and the players, the orchestra continues to receive much critical acclaim.

SINCE The Beehive, Honiton's very own Community Centre opened in April; it has exceeded all expectations and gone from strength to strength. Although some have been opposed to the building, many more have realised what a lovely welcoming venue it is, with its great bunch of volunteers and what a tremendous asset it is to the town.

Not only is it booked out every evening during the week except one, for a huge range of dance classes, but there are also Honiton band rehearsals, Yoga & meditation sessions, Makaton lessons, U3A, NADFAS, Audition technique classes, Theatre Kidz sessions every Saturday and Honiton Community Church every Sunday.

We also have monthly films with The Honiton Community Cinema, Tea Dances on the second Friday of every month have just been introduced, along with a monthly Acoustic/Folk club, which was brilliant last month, lots of lovely talented folk came along and had a go. The monthly Quiz night and Jazz café have become firm favourites and we are having The Sassy Choir, a fun, informal singing & signing group for carers, parents, professionals, friends and those with aural, visual or other communicative impairments, or anyone who would love to learn!

Amongst all of this, we manage to accommodate conferences and training days for many local and national organisations and without the dedication of our wonderful team of volunteers we just wouldn't function, it is really thanks to them and the support of local organisations that we are doing so well to date.

The opening events set the tone for The Beehive, with sell out performances for Christ Crucified, the Joanna Leach Concert, The Baton Trust's Plymouth Military Wives Concert, The East Devon Hospice, Fashion Show and our home grown talents in India Electric Co.

The Beehive is very proud of its collaboration with local groups to put on some splendid events for the community and hopes to produce many more. Where ever possible we choose to use local or South West based talent of a very high standard for our events, anyone who came to last week's sold out performance of the Flamenco will agree about the quality, I'm sure.

If you haven't visited The Beehive yet, make a date, come to a show, a class, our Absent Abbey Art exhibition or just wander in and take a tour, you're always welcome; after all, it is your Community Centre!

Going underground with Symonds & Sampson

THE award winning firm of Chartered Surveyors, Symonds & Sampson, sell many varied and unusual lots but their sale on 9th October breaks new ground.

Paul Longridge-Berry of the Axminster office explains, "We are well known for selling and valuing the weird and the wonderful but the former Reservoir Site at Colyton in Devon has to be one of the most unusual.

"Planning consent has been granted by the East Devon District Council to build a below ground level eco house just half a mile from the amenities of the town.

"You will by buying the site of a former reservoir using the area for the tanks so the scheme will involve a certain amount of excavation and landscaping. The majority of the property will be below ground level with an eco-style roof but the ground will be excavated to provide parking and turning space and, for example, the ground level will be lowered to allow for glazed doors to be installed giving access to the garden.

"The proposed accommodation would include a spacious living room, kitchen/dining room, 3 bedrooms (1 with en suite shower room) study, bathroom and cloakroom."

We expect there to be strong interest for this unique site and price guide is £200,000. Further details from Paul Longridge-Berry on 01297 33122.

"FORGET WET"
NO MESS! NO FUSS! NO WATER!

Dryasabone carpet cleaners are a 21st century forward thinking family owned local established company that relies on excellent customer service and satisfaction for repeat business and recommendations.We guarantee to provide a sales gimmick free and reliable service with confirmed appointment times at a time convenient for you the customer not us.

Our expertise lies in dry/low moisture carpet cleaning , which means no-one is going to come along and soak your carpets with dirty water and steam up your windows for the rest of the day.

We specialise in the HOST* Dry extraction method which ensures your carpets are clean ,dry and looking their best.and back in use immediately."FORGET WET"

This method of cleaning has been developed over more than 50 years,and is used in over 60 countries and by some of the worlds largest organisations.

The price we quote is the full and final price you pay.No other gimmicks will be offered----our reputation is our main selling point and will not be compromised.

The Advantages.

- Uses safe natural bio-degradable non-toxic products
- Safe for children and pets
- No damp dog smells
- Is fully endorsed by major carpet retailers
- No steamy windows
- No sitting in your kitchen for hours waiting for carpets to dry
- No down time for hotels and guest houses
- Your rooms are back in use immediately
- A true earth friendly process

Early Airing For All–New Audi TT Roadster

▲ TAudi TT Roadster

OPEN minds at Audi have again been applied to the classic concept of the open-top two-seater sports car, and the result – the all-new TT Roadster – is set to bring its thoroughly contemporary perspective on the time-honoured theme to next month's Mondial de l'Automobile in Paris.

While on the outside it retains a fast-retracting fabric hood in accordance with roadster tradition and in the interest of weight minimisation, the third generation of the Audi icon embraces the future in all other respects, from its advanced hybrid aluminium and steel construction to its remarkable all-digital virtual cockpit and advanced new chassis with upgraded quattro drive. The new high performance convertible is set to arrive in the UK in good time for spring 2015, and will be available to order from mid-November priced from £31,955 OTR.

"The concept of designing a compact roadster following clear geometrical rules formed the original idea for the Audi TT in autumn 1994," says Prof. Dr. Ulrich Hackenberg, Board Member for Technical Development at AUDI AG: "From the first generation on, it has been a sports car for the senses – a driving machine with an authentic design. With the new TT Roadster, we have developed this concept in a consistent manner and further improved the technical experience in the car with innovations such as the Audi virtual cockpit."

The new TT Roadster offers the capabilities of a sports car with the option of added open-top exhilaration, but without the compromises that this blend of attributes often demands. Great importance has been attached to torsional rigidity and ride comfort, and specially developed struts in the underbody and body work in their favour. Aerodynamics have also been prioritised, the new Roadster slipping cleanly and quietly through the air with a best-in-class drag coefficient of 0.30.

More purposeful stance

At 4,177 millimeters in length the two-seater is 21 millimetres shorter than its predecessor. Its wheelbase, on the other hand, has grown by 37 millimetres to 2,505 millimetres, contributing to shorter overhangs for an even more purposeful stance. With a width of 1,832 millimetres, the new TT Roadster is 10 millimetres narrower than its predecessor, and at a height of 1,355 millimetres it is 3 millimetres lower.

The front of the open-top sports car conveys power and energy through its accentuated horizontal lines. Similar to the Audi R8, the Singleframe grille is wide and flat, and the four rings are positioned on the bonnet in the style of a high-performance sports car. On the standard version, the air inlets are connected to one another and divided by two vertical slats.

Two vertical lighting elements are also positioned in the headlights and emit the LED daytime running lights. In the UK these are combined with either xenon or LED headlamps depending on version, and in both cases it will be possible to upgrade these to new Matrix LED headlamps which can automatically divert their high beams around oncoming and leading traffic, and also feature dynamic indicators with a sweeping function following the intended turn direction.

The flat and taut top of the new TT Roadster and the TTS Roadster also provides a clear contrast with the body and is defined by the short side window design that is typical of the TT Roadster. When viewed from the side, many of the details invoke the first generation of the design classic. The shoulders have a muscular look and the sill contour forms a strong light-refracting edge. The broad wheel arches form their own geometric entities: The front wheel arch breaks through the bonnet gap that continues as the tornado line all the way to the rear end.

At the rear, horizontal lines again underscore the width of the open-top sports car. The bars in the standard LED rear lights, which adopt the motif of the headlights, are permanently illuminated. The third brake light – a flat strip on the edge of the luggage compartment lid – connects the light silhouette at the rear. A diffuser incorporates the tailpipes of the exhaust system. At speeds of 74mph and above, a spoiler is electrically extended from the luggage compartment lid to provide additional downforce on the rear axle.

SOUTH-WEST PENINSULA LEAGUE
Division One (east)
Liverton Utd 1 Axminster Town 2

AXMINSTER Town's promising start to life under new management team Pete Knox and Keith Somers continued with a second successive away win as hosts Liverton were beaten 2-1.

The Tigers started really well and were 2-0 up inside 20 minute courtesy of goals from Ben Vine and Adam Cowling.

More seemed certain to follow but Ax failed to capitalise and Liverton struck back before the interval.

The hosts stepped up the pressure after the turnaround but the Tigers defence held firm with Gary Macauley putting in a MoM performance and 16-year-old Kingsley Wellman looking good on debut.

Frustratingly the resurgent Ax side, who are still stuck at the foot of the table, have no fixture on Saturday.

Tigers team; S.Wells-Burr, K.Wellman, G.Warren, G.Macauley, M.Knight, B.Miller, A.Wheatley, C.Garrett, B.Vine, B.Turner, A.Cowling. Subs used; D.Galloway, G.Spiller, M.Hewer.

The Tigers are without a fixture next weekend.

Sidmouth Town 2 Tavistock 3

THE supporters at Manstone Lane witnessed a terrific game of football, but unfortunately also too much controversy.

Against the run of play Sidmouth took the lead in the 10th minute when Mark Pavey caught the visiting keeper by surprise with a well-placed shot that he struck early to leave the keeper flat footed from 20 yards out.

The first controversial point was Tavistock's equaliser. The Sidmouth backline had pushed up leaving Kelvin Fyneboy standing in an offside position, the flag did not go up and the striker took full advantage and finished well.

To the credit of the linesman he immediately apologised for getting the decision wrong but the goal stood.

Sidmouth deservedly regained the lead on the hour through Ashley Small who unleashed a terrific strike from 30 yards that flew into the top corner.

The second talking point of the game occurred on the 65th minute when Josh French went up for a high ball with Meads in goal, the Tavistock keeper flapped at the ball but French was adjudged to have played the man and not the ball.

Soon after Tavistock's left back John Robbin hit a rasping effort from 35 yards out that flew past Vikings keeper Charlie Ledger to make it 2-2.

The Tavvy winner came in the 78th minute when Ledger rose to claim a cross, with two hands clearly on the ball the challenge on the keeper was deemed to be legal causing Ledger to drop the ball at the feet of Fyneboy who tapped in.

Two minutes later the game was delayed for 40 minutes after Tavistock's young defender Ollie Archer landed awkwardly, the teenager was taken to hospital where early reports suggested severe tendon damage to the lower back. Everyone at Sidmouth Town FC wish the talented defender a speedy recovery.

Sidmouth: Ledger, Cox (Doble 81), Colson, Pidgeon, Dixon (Newbury 74), Barker, French (C), Thompson, Small, Pavey, O'Donoghue (Isaac 70). Unused sub: Cole.

Next up for the Vikings is Saturday's visit by Liverton United.

Match report
Tipton St John 0 Colyton 2

AFTER last weekend's humbling by Upottery, Colyton were delighted to return home from the short trip to Tipton St John with another three points in the bag.

George Richards headed home early on after a cross from Jason Potter came back off the crossbar. Richards came close to repeating the trick just a minute later, but this time he headed narrowly wide after Callum Somers had hit the post.

The Tanners had chances to increase their lead, but were kept at bay by some good stops by Tipton keeper Lee Strawbridge.

But they scored their second late in the first-half when Somers headed home following a melee in the box.

Round-up with Collin Goodwin

EXACTLY 40 years after they moved on from the Devon & Exeter League to the higher pastures of the Western League ELMORE first team are back.

The shock news from the Eagles' Horsden Park came in midweek with their withdrawal from the South West Peninsular League so their Premier team now faces life as their main side once again.

It was a massive decision from the club, but they began their comeback at TOPSHAM TOWN with a 1-0 victory courtesy of a Daniel Tapp goal just before half-time.

Elmore's plight took some of the highlights away from leaders TIVERTON TOWN who, as expected ran out 9-0 winners against BUDLEIGH SALTERTON. It was another gallant effort from the Robins but they could not prevent another big loss with Richard Groom, Luke Passmore and Luke Mortimer all scoring twice for the yellows.

Newly promted SIDBURY UNITED remain unbeaten after their 3-2 win against the UNIVERSITY who gave away four penalties after taking the lead. Dave Green and Adam Connett scored a pen each but the best goal came from Luke Barker. Alex Parsons and Nathan Blackie were the college scorers.

HEAVITREE UNITED won 4-1 at NEWTOWN to maintain their renewed confidence, Jake Hobbs getting the home side's consolation goal. Joel Hawes, Elliot Wells, Dan Gilland Liam Mallett shared the Heavies goals.

BOW AAC continue to seek their first win after slipping up 2-0 at BEER ALBION where James Melville and John Cooper scored the goals,

Beer's neighbours SEATON TOWN suffered a heavy 5-1 defeat at home to CHARD TOWN RESERVES. Martyn Hancock scored the Greens' consolation to make it 4-1 from the penalty spot.

WITHERIDGE clung on to top spot in Division One despite being held 1-1 at EAST BUDLEIGH, but HONITON TOWN closed the gap with a 3-0 home win against BICKLEIGH.

CLYST VALLEY drop back after losing 1-0 to WESTEXE ROVERS whose Lee Woodman scored, and that let in NEWTON ST CYRES who were 3-1 winners at HEAVITREE UNITED.

The UNIVERSITY kept EXMOUTH AMATEURS waiting for their first victory, the College winning 2-1 with newcomers Alistair Lyon and Chris Lund scoring.

EXWICK VILLA won 2-1 at BEACON KNIGHTS in a cracking game, with Steve Morrish getting the winner.

Division Two leaders EXETER UNIVERSITY won 3-0 at HEMYOCK to stay ahead of the pack, Ben Wicherick, Harvey Owen and James Smyth scoring, but they are kept company by NEWTOWN who were 3-2 winners at HALWILL. Luke Todd scored twice.

UPOTTERY had the eye-catching result in this division as they powered in 7-1 against DAWLISH UNITED.

In Division Three EXMOUTH TOWN beat UNIVERSITY 4-2. Tim Wright, Adam Turner, James Sharkey and Kerry Butler were the Town scorers.

LYME REGIS recovered from last week's setback to win 4-1 at AXMOUTH UNITED in the first league meeting between the two clubs for 28 years.

Lyme led 2-0 at half time through goals from Lee Cleal and Ben Whittington having grazed the woodwork twice as well.

This was extended to 4-0 with a double from French striker Julien Simier before Ax skipper Jacob Hayes slotted a consolation for the hosts.

HENRY'S CRONIES moved into the top three with a 6-1 win against TEDBURN ST MARY, Liam Carey getting another hat-trick.

CHERITON FITZPAINE were held to a 2-2 draw by CHAGFORD, Mike Back and Daryl Pidgeon scoring the home goals.

BAMPTON became the first team to score against Division Four leaders ST MARTINS but still lost 5-1.

The LORDS XI are off the mark after their 4-2 win against previous 100 percenters OKEHAMPTON .

Division Five leaders FENITON won 7-2 against STOKE HILL with half-time sub Paul Dowling getting four second half goals.

Division Six leaders NEWTON ST CYRES were held 1-1 at the RAILWAY CLUB, and that has let in OTTERY ST MARY who destroyed EAST BUDLEIGH 8-0.

In Division Seven Dean Thomas was the star performer in OFFWELL's plucky 1-0 defeat against the heavily bolstered ELMORE.

PERRY STREET LEAGUE

MILLWEY RISE crashed out of the Division One cup after a 4-2 extra time defeat at in-form Barrington.

The hosts took the lead on the stroke of half-time through a disputed Andy Whitefield penalty.

But Rise grabbed the initiative and turned things around after the break to lead 2-1 with strikes from Sam Dibling and Mark Pike.

That's how it stayed until the 88th minute when Whitefield scored again to force the extra half hour.

The game was decided in the second-half when Mike Whitefield and Ian Masters scored to clinch the hosts' victory.

MILLWEY RISE RES were handed a walkover in the John Fowler Cup when Barrington Reserves failed to raise a side.

Back in the league and FARWAY UNITED remain rooted to the foot of the Division One table following a 3-0 home defeat at the hands of Forton Rangers.

In Division Three HAWKCHURCH UNITED threw away a 3-1 lead as they were beaten 6-3 at Chard Utd Reserves.

Dan Richards put the Hawks ahead early on only for Chard to level almost immediately.

Further strikes from Jack Larcombe and Andy Dymond appeared to put the Hawks in control on the hour mark.

But the hosts moved up through the gears to win 6-3.

THE season starts with an apology – the scorecards haven't yet appeared from the printers, so teams will have to improvise for the first week. Hopefully captains will have a spare or two from last season.

A fixture list and scorecard template is available on the league website - http://www.colytondartsleague.co.nr/ - but in the meantime, here are the first two weeks' fixtures:

Thursday (October 2nd): Kingfisher A v Golden Hind; Seaton FC A v Seaton FC B; PJs v Kingfisher B; Vault v Dolphin.

Thursday, October 9th: Kingfisher B v Vault; Seaton FC B v PJs; Golden Hind v Seaton FC A; Beer Club v Kingfisher A.

Under 13s; Central City 10 Millwey Rise 3 (Chris Watson 2, Owen Neal).

Seaton U16 5 Kentisbeare Colts 1

SEATON grabbed an early lead when Jacob Rowe was taken down in the box and dusted himself off to score the resulting penalty.

Lewis Cottam added a second before setting up Max Richardson to make it 3-0.

The Kentisbeare boys rallied back with a goal Lewis Cottam netted his second to put Seaton 4-1 up at the break.

The second-half was scrappy but the last goal came from Kyle Gould. Man of the match was Tony Pinder.

Seaton U9

SEATON played host to Twyford Spartans and Gladiators in their first home matches of the season.

The Spartans edged Seaton out 2-0 in a closely fought contest. Defenders Harvey Green and Taylor Hine and goalkeeper of Adam Clinch all had fine games.

The Gladiators were then held to a 2-2 draw. Man of the match Adam Clinch made it 1-1 just before half time, latching on to a clever through ball by Corbin Reel before firing high into the corner.

Trailing 2-1 with minutes to go, Henry Matthews then swept in a cross after some crafty wing play by Aaron Hale to make it 2-2.

Billy Fowler and Jericho Hannant held things together well in midfield, with some great tackles and crucial clearances, as Seaton earned a well deserved draw.

THE season reached its conclusion with the Triples Finals and the Whitbread Cup Final, plus a couple of matches to sort out the final league places.

Golden Hind B clinched their third trophy of the year with a 9-5 victory Kings Cavaliers in the final of the Triples Cup. Thanks to Bron and Ron from the Lamb crowd for helping out with the refereeing on the night.

Semi-finals: Golden Hind B 9 Shipwrecked 1; Kings Cavaliers 9 Ship Castaways 8.

Final: Golden Hind B 9 Kings Cavaliers 5.

Axe Cliff A beat Axe Cliff B 4-2 in the final of the Whitbread Cup. Thanks to Charlie and co at Seaton Town FC for hosting the event.

In the league, Axe Cliff B beat Axe Cliff A 3-2, but it wasn't quite enough to take second spot in Division One, with the A side clinching the runners-up spot due to a 4-1 win earlier in the season giving them a 6-4 aggregate.

In the Division two relegation play-off Kings Cavaliers won 3-1 to send Lamb (mutton) down to Division Three.

Finally, a reminder that Presentation Night is tonight (Tuesday) at The Golden Hind, with the trophies being awarded from 8pm.

AXE VALLEY RUNNERS

with Diane Newton

TIM Lenton, James Jackson and Robin Cater ran the LITTLE LONG RUN last Saturday 20th September.

This Grade B fell run organised by Graham Hill of Sidmouth Running Club starts at Newton Poppleford alongside the River Otter and takes the runners over a fantastic course over private farm land and tracks up to Mutters Moor. There were lots of ups and downs with a final steep climb and a lovely descent through fields to the finish via two river crossings.

Tim and three other runners took a wrong turn soon after the start putting an unsuspecting James into the lead. Tim ran hard to catch James at the end of the descent but James dug in over the flat to win the race in 32:46.

Tim had to settle for 2nd palce in 33:00.Robin was 3rd lady back and also took the 1st vet over 45 prize.

James and Robin also teamed up with two runners from Exmouth Harriers, John and Lorraine Croome, to win the team prize under the name of the Moor Misfits.

Becky Lippet travelled back to her home city of Bristol last Sunday to run the BRISTOL HALF MARATHON and had an excellent run to achieve a PB of 1:57:39, coming 4,050th out of 15,000 runners.

Graham Newton took part in Sunday's ASHBURTON MUD AND SWEAT race. This took place at River Dart Country Park with the 10k course taking in a variety of natural and man-made obstacles, including wading through chest high water to board a pirate ship, several river crossings and plenty of mud. Graham finished in 56.52 to win the over 50 male solo grand vet prize.

Sue and Mike Venn also ran on Sunday, at the TAUNTON 10K. Both managed a good run, with Sue being very pleased with her time of 57:45 closely followed by Mike, in 1:02:57.

The inaugural running of the STOCKLAND SCAMPER 10K, organised by Stockland Primary School, took place on Sunday.

The race was won by Jake Smith in a time of 37.27. Only 22 seconds behind him was Matt Clist.

The next AVR home was Ian Apps who came 8th in a time of 45.20. Four AVR's came in quick succession behind him with Ollie Caute 10th in 45.20, Joshua Hopson 11th in 46.32, Rupert Pady 12th in 46.41 and Phil Bayliss 13th in 46.47 earning him the first male vet 60 prize.

Eleanor Wood was 2nd lady home in 48.58 also winning the F vet55 category.

In 23rd was Tony Smith in 50.08 followed by Paul Johns 27th in 51.44. Cameron Hill recorded a great time of 54.19 in 33rd place and Will Watson was 44th in 57.46.

Mark Harding-Perrot just missed the hour mark in 60.13 in 48th place followed by Chris Hill 49th in 60.45. Sam Miller was 54th in 62.44 and 57 was Yvette Hill in 64.43 completing the Hill family trio.

The junior 3k race was won by AVR's own Molly Smith in 11.26, with Caitlin Smith 18th in 14.28.

Patrick Devine-Wright took part in his maiden 100 mile race - the COTSWOLD CENTURY - a trail race along the route of the Cotswold Way from Chipping Camden to Bath.

Eighty seven runners started the race at noon on Saturday, setting off to run through pretty villages, woods and along ridges with fantastic views of the Malvern Hills.

◆ READY FOR THE OFF: Axe Valley Runners assemble before last weekend's Stockland Scamper

As darkness fell runners donned head torches with food stations every couple of hours or so.

Patrick ran well, finishing in 2nd place in a time of 19 hours and 54 minutes, a time that was over half an hour quicker than the old course record, and 25 minutes behind the winner.

HONITON RUNNING CLUB

with Judy Davey

HONITON Running Club turned out in force for the inaugural running of the STOCKLAND SCAMPER 10k multi-terrain race last Sunday.

The race was organised jointly by Axe Valley Runners and Stockland Primary Academy PTFA and the winner was 16 year old Jake Smith of AVR in the amazing time of 37 minutes 27 seconds.

Kevin Hawker was first back for Honiton coming 3rd overall in 41:13 also winning his category. Ben Stone followed delighted with his run to come 6th in 42:52.

Young Iain Ross came home 9th overall in 45:20. Richard Harvey managed 14th in 46:49 one place ahead of Rod Inglis who finished 22 seconds later to take the first male 50 prize.

Steve Davey was next in 20th place in 48:41 followed by Howard Bidmead who finished 22nd in 49:36.

New member Phil Bartlett showed his good form to come 24th in 50:33. Bruce Strawbridge took it steadily and was pleased with his 26th place in 51:02. Judy Davey was 3rd lady and won her category coming 28th overall in 52:33.

This was the first race John Burgess had taken part in for a while and was happy with his 38th place in 55:25. He was followed one place and 29 seconds later by Tim Wigram who completed the 10k line-up for Honiton. There were 66 finishers.

The 3k was extremely well attended with 83 runners taking part. The race was won by Molly Smith in 11:26. Oliver Grimshaw was the first Honiton runner back coming 4th in 13:08. He was followed by Flo Swan who won her age category in 13:13 and was 2nd girl overall.

Thomas Lilley came 9th in 13:42 and Jasmine Stone was next back coming 16th in 14:17 and winning her category. Alfie Siggers had a good run to come 20th in 14:32 just ahead of Ashleigh Ford-Cosens who finished six seconds later. Jasmine's younger brother Harrison completed Honiton's line-up to come 40th in 16:42.

Whilst some went to Stockland, other Honiton runners went to Scotland to take part in the Baxter's LOCH NESS MARATHON. Julie Payne finished in the excellent time of 3 hours 26 minutes and Stephen Boyes finished in 3:51. Clare Melbourne completed Honiton's contingency in the very pleasing time of 4:50.

Tony Peek wanted to try something a little different so it was an early start to travel to Bath for the BATH TWO TUNNELS 10km route which heads straight along the path of the Somerset & Dorset Railway through the suburbs of Bath.

From the start line which is on top of a bridge runners then climb 180 ft over the 1st mile to the entrance of the first tunnel which is just over 400m long.

The route has a slight climb up and through the tunnel before emerging out into beautiful woodland on the other side. Here the route continues to climb slightly before reaching the sloping Combe Down Tunnel which is just over a mile in length.

Once out from the tunnel runners see the platform for Midford Station. The route then heads back with an uphill finish. Tony completed the course in 51:21 having been forced to stop meaning he had to overtake about a dozen runners he had previously passed.

Minster Challenge ahead

THE third Minster Challenge multi-terrain run will be held on Sunday October 5th, starting and finishing at Axe Valley Community College in Axminster.

The main run has a distance of approximately 10 kilometres. There is also five-kilometre run, plus a junior run for those aged under 11.

The college spokesman said: "Those who prefer not to participate can soak up the atmosphere with a display from Karizma Majorettes and a visit to the PTFA members who will be happy to supply you with refreshments. There will also be a second hand book stall.

"Showers are available for runners at the sports centre for £1.25 and a cool down swim at The Flamingo Pool at a special rate of £2.50.

"Special thanks go to our main sponsor this year, SWH Build also continued thanks go to Fred Hansford Ltd, carpet fitters and flooring experts, who have sponsored us from the first challenge in 2012."

More information and entry forms are available online at axevalley.devon.sch.uk/community/the-minster-challenge.

Division One

WHILST Otters continued their winning start against newly promoted Tip Top Trees, the performance of the evening belonged to Hi Q who pulled off a stunning 33-15 win over Flamingos to retain their unbeaten run.

The first quarter was even with Hi Q moving in front by 8-5 and with Jaz Chester once again playing well they had increased their lead to 18-10 by half way.

Although Karen Hall worked hard in defence for Flamingos she could not fully stem the Hi Q attacking tide and Hi Q ran out winners denying Flamingos a point from the game.

Tip Top Trees worked hard against leaders Otters, but although Jenny Robinson played another great game, they could not match Otters for whom Bryony Monaghan was the star in their 41-16 win.

Division Two

Last week Otter Valley had lost against toucans but tonight saw them bounce back against A&P with a convincing 31-7 win.

The first quarter saw Otter Valley edge a 9-4 lead, with Rachel Tucker in good form they steadily gained control, despite good work from Heather Beviss for A&P. Otter Valley continued to outscore their opponents to win 31-9 and move to the top of the table.

Having started their campaign with a win last week Sidmouth Toucans were defeated by an energised Howden hawks for whom Paige Fahy stole the show.

Hawks were 19-10 in front by half way, but in the third quarter Danni Walters got Toucans firing and they closed the gap to 20-25 going into the final period. Hawks dug deep however and the Sidmouth comeback was halted with Howden going onto win by 35-27.

Seagars reign in Spain

HONITON with Andy Wagner

Mixed Pairs Challenge

The inaugural Brittany Ferries Mixed Pairs Challenge Championship took place last week in Gigon, Northern Spain.

Four pairs competed, each representing their County from qualifying rounds held earlier last month. Allan and Jackie Seager, from Honiton Golf Club, represented Devon and competed against pairs from Cornwall, Somerset and Dorset.

Day one saw Somerset take a comfortable lead with 36 points, with Devon on 33 and managing to hold on to 2nd position.

Day 2 saw a change in the competitors. As the teams came in nervous glances were exchanged to see if anything was being given away.

With both days' scores added together, the championship winning pair were Allan and Jackie Seager (66pts), followed by 2nd place Somerset (60pts c/b), Cornwall 3rd (60pts).

Taylor takes over

By Howard Larcombe
howard@pemedia.co.uk

KEITH Taylor has been appointed as the new manager of Devon & Exeter League Division Three side Axminster Town Reserves.

Taylor (47), who will be assisted by club chairman Ray Self, has a long association with the Tigers having played youth football from age 11 through to 16 before turning out for the Reserve team and having the occasional first team outing.

He then went on to play for Chard United and Millwey Rise before managing Millwey Reserves to their first silverware when they lifted the Ken Hodges cup back in 2003-04.

New players welcome

Taylor, who has since had a spell as a qualified referee in the Perry Street League and returned as assistant manger at Millwey Rise, is keen to add to the current Axminster Town Reserve team squad and would welcome any new faces at training which currently takes place at Axe Valley School on Tuesday evenings from 6.30pm.

The team have had a difficult start to the new season and currently sit bottom of the table without a point to their name.

Netballers celebrate successful season

THE Honiton Netball Winter League resumed after a brief summer break and after an AGM celebrating the previous year's achievements.

The 2013-14 winter champions had been OPG (now Otters) with Flamingos as runners-up. Tip Top Trees and JD Tyres were promoted from Division Two to the top flight.

The summer season was the now usual 'handicap' league which saw Uplowman crowned as champions after an undefeated season with Signs South West the runners-up.

Each year there is a fair play award that is determined by weekly scores by umpires, with the trophy this year being won by Sidmouth Toucans.

There are also awards for players of the season and this year the awards went to Caroline Biggs (Toucans) and Carole Goddard (OPG) in Division One and Helen Freemantle (JD Tyres) in Division Two for the winter season whilst Jenny Robinson (Tip Top Trees) and Nicky Snell (Blackdown Ladies) shared the award for the summer with Nicky also picking up the umpire award.
